- -I don't like shopping centers.
Once you've seen one, you've seen the mall.
- A bossy man walked into a bar,
then ordered everyone a round.
- Why did the golfer cry? He was going through a rough patch.
- How does a lumberjack know how many trees he's cut down?
He keeps a log.
- Why do barbers make good drivers? They know a lot of short cuts.
- What has four wheels and flies? A garbage truck.
- Did you hear about the soap-stealing robber? He decided to come clean.

To the members of the Stony Plain Legion #256

I am writing this letter to sincerely apologize for making an incorrect assessment on the suitability and the disposal of some the silent auction items that has eroded the trust of the membership. I deeply regret my actions and the inconvenience they may have caused.

I understand my decisions were inappropriate and hurtful. It was never my intention to cause distress.

Please accept my heartfelt apology.

In the future, I will be more mindful of my action and strive to avoid similar mistakes. I value my relationship with all members and hope that you can find it in your heart to forgive me.

Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely

Viktoria (Vikki) Scott
