From the many skills offered by our service members, to their ability to deliver vital supplies around the world, the Canadian Armed Forces stand ready to help when it's needed.

26 years ago, the first Canadian military transport planes were en route to the Democratic Republic of the Congo in response to the refugee crisis. The Canadian Armed Forces provided air lift capabilities in order to extend much needed support to the violence-torn region. Pictured are French soldiers disembarking from a Canadian C-130 Hercules transport aircraft in the country in 2003. Don't stare at the turkey dressing.

You'll make him blush!

1. I'm like a jumbo kosher pickle. Guess you could say I'm a pretty big dill.
2. I watched a documentary last night about how pickles are made. It was jarring.
3. Cucumber is one vegetable that is always in a pickle.
