Do you know the history of Nunavut Day?
On July 9 in 1993, Parliament passed the Nunavut Land Claims Agreement Act, which granted the Inuit of the eastern Arctic their own territory and government.

Nunavut officially came into being in 1999.

On Nunavut Day, we thank our Inuit service members and Veterans for their many contributions.

From the soldiers serving in the First and Second World Wars to the Canadian Rangers patrolling the North today, they continue to be an important part of our military.

Happy Nunavut Day!

Our Volunteers are great so if you are at one of our events or activities just give our Volunteers a Thank You.
