Public Welcome!!

It was 80 years ago, on 31 July 1942, that the Women's Royal Canadian Naval Service—affectionately known as the WRENS—was formed during the Second World War.

By the time the branch ended its operations four years later, nearly 7,000 Canadian women had served.

They performed a variety of essential services, including coding, wireless telegraphy, and administrative duties. Do you know someone who served in the Women's Royal Canadian Naval Service?
