6 years have passed since the first Canadian peacekeepers arrived in Egypt. As part of the United Nations Emergency Force, thousands of Canadian soldiers served in the multinational peace support operation that was launched in response to the 1956 Suez Crisis. This was the first large-scale UN peacekeeping mission.

An older gentleman was on the operating table awaiting surgery and he insisted that his son, a renowned surgeon, perform the operation. As he was about to get the anesthesia he asked to speak to his son. "Yes, Dad, what is it?"

"Don't be nervous, son; do your best, and just remember, if it doesn't go well, if something happens to me, your mother is going to come and live with you and your wife...."

The older we get, the fewer things seem worth waiting in line for. (Mostly because we forgot why we were waiting in line in the first place !!
