Royal Canadian LEGION

“Join us at Stony Plain Legion #256 to Celebrate the Life of Queen Elizabeth II on Monday, September 19 at 11 AM for an outdoor service. EVERYONE welcome, Legion members are asked to attend in full uniform or business casual dress. The Branch will be open for fellowship following the service and we ask if you wish to attend the indoor gathering that you bring a small tray of sandwiches or sweets to share (please no hot food, bring your trays ready to serve, veggie or fruit trays are also welcome, the Branch will supply pickles and cheese).

The “Royal” in Royal Canadian Legion came to be in 1961 and was due to Her Majesty’s consent to use this title. The Legion was founded in Winnipeg in 1925 as “The Canadian Legion of the British Empire Services League” and was later incorporated by a special Act of Parliament with its Charter issued in 1926. That Act was amended in 1961 after the Queen consented to the use of the prefix “Royal.” As a Veteran herself, having served during the Second World War as an army driver and mechanic, the late Queen was a true role model of comportsment and grace and will be remembered fondly. Over the years, members of her family have displayed great reverence for Canada’s Fallen including the Queen’s own son, the King, and the Queen Consort who placed a wreath at the National War Memorial in 2009 and in 2022 during the Queen’s 70th Jubilee. Her Majesty’s daughter, the Princess Royal, Princess Anne and her husband Vice Admiral Sir Tim Laurence also attended the Legion’s National Remembrance Day Ceremony in Ottawa in November 2014. The late Queen’s own parents King George VI and Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother were present for the inauguration of our country’s National War Memorial at the original dedication ceremony in May 1939.

The Legion launched with a mission of supporting and being a strong voice for First World War Veterans. That dedication now extends to our country’s military and RCMP Veterans at home and abroad.

With the succession of the King, the Legion’s ties to the monarchy and the Commonwealth will remain strong and will be embodied by His Majesty’s representative in Canada, Her Excellency the Right Honourable Mary May Simon, the current viceregal patron of the Legion.

We will Remember Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.
