Canada's combat mission in Kandahar, Afghanistan came to an end in July 2011.

For more than five years, Canadian Armed Forces (CAF) members conducted combat operations in Kandahar Province. After countless examples of bravery and sacrifice, this responsibility was passed on to the US military.

The CAF remained in Afghanistan for almost three more years, where they trained Afghan military and police forces, and helped improve education, health, security and diplomacy in the country.
