-A boy asks his father, "Dad, are bugs good to eat?" "That's disgusting. Don't talk about things like that over dinner," the dad replies. After dinner the father asks, "Now, son, what did you want to ask me?" "Oh, nothing," the boy says. "There was a bug in your soup, but now it's gone."

-Q: Why did the witches' team lose the baseball game? A: Their bats flew away.

-Q: Why couldn't the leopard play hide and seek? A: Because he was always spotted.

-An elderly couple are in church. The wife leans over and whispers to her husband, "I just let out a long, silent fart. What should I do?" The husband replies, "First off, replace the batteries in your hearing aid!"

Thank You for supporting your Legion.

In September, 2011 President Obama wrote a personal letter to Prime Minister Harper and all Canadians thanking them for coming to the rescue of tens of thousands of Americans on 9-11.

He wrote:

“In one of the darkest moments of our history, Canada stood by our side and showed itself to be a true friend,”

“We remember with gratitude and affection how the people of Canada offered us the comfort of friendship and extraordinary assistance that day and in the following days by opening their airports, homes and hearts to us.”

“On this anniversary, we recognize all the gestures of friendship and solidarity shown to us by Canada and its people and give thanks for our continuing special relationship.”

By the end of the day, more than 33,000 people, predominantly American, on 224 aircraft had arrived in Canada - primarily in Vancouver, Gander, Halifax, Goose Bay, Whitehorse, Edmonton and Calgary.
