We would like to thank everyone for coming out to comedy night. The comedians were extremely funny. Some quotes from those who attended “very well organized and very entertaining”, “I was not expecting much for $10.00, but I would have paid more, these guys were hilarious”, “It was a solid event, looking forward to another one”, “I hope you are planning another comedy night, they were very funny”.

Also thanks to Ray and Alana White for organizing this and to all who pitched in to help. A great night was had by all.

“Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things that you didn't do than by the ones you did do.” ~ Mark Twain

Yesterday marked 100 years since the unveiling of the Newfoundland Beaumont-Hamel Memorial in France. It's a lasting tribute to the Newfoundlanders and Labradorians who served in the #FirstWorldWar.

For a century, the majestic bronze caribou has served as a powerful reminder of the significant losses endured by this small yet strong Dominion. The memorial highlights the importance of honouring their military contributions and sacrifices.

Lest we forget.
