It's Your Legion

Are you an active member
The kind that would be missed
Or are you just contented
That your name is on the list?

Do you attend the meetings
And mingle with the crowd
Or do you stay at home
And grumble long and loud?

Do you ever go and visit
A member who is sick
Or leave the work to just a few
And talk about the clique?

Come to the Legion more often
And come with hand and heart
Don't just be a member
But take an active part.

Think this over members
You know the right from wrong.
Are you an active member
Or do you just belong?

Thank You for supporting your Legion.

On June 15, 1915, the Battle of Givenchy unfolded in northern France, as part of a broader Allied push during the First World War. Led by the British First Army, the offensive aimed to break through German lines.

Canadian troops, part of the 1st Canadian Division, played a supporting role, holding critical trench positions near Festubert and Givenchy. The operation faced strong resistance and failed to gain ground, with heavy casualties on both sides.

Despite the outcome, Canada's role highlighted the growing strength and resilience of its soldiers in the early stages of the war.

Lessons learned from Givenchy helped shape Canadian tactics in later key battles at Vimy Ridge and beyond.
