Military Police (MP) are sworn to uphold the laws of Canada and the code of service discipline. With over 1,250 full-time members, they form one of the largest police forces in Canada.

Whether investigating cyber-crimes and on base theft to aircraft, protecting VIPs, or doing undercover work, MPs provide around-the-clock policing, security, and detention services to the military community in Canada or wherever our members are deployed around the world, including areas of armed conflict and natural disaster.
