After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them on ahead of him, two by two, into every town and place where he himself was about to go. And he said to them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. Go your way; behold, I am sending you out as lambs in the midst of wolves. Carry no moneybag, no knapsack, no sandals, and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace be to this house!’ And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him. But if not, it will return to you. And remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the laborer deserves his wages. Do not go from house to house.

What does it take to grow a crop?

Number each picture to put them all in the right order!

When Jesus talked about a “harvest,” he was actually talking about people, not plants. There are many who want to hear about God’s love, but we need to tell them!

Look at the doodles below. Make each one into a person. Fill the whole page with people waiting to hear about Jesus.
