

Homecoming Guest Preacher

September 13, 2026

Pastor Andrew F. Weisner, a native of North Carolina, was prepared for ministry at Lenoir-Rhyne College, the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, PA, the Catholic University of America, Washington, DC; and completed doctoral studies in Church history at a theological consortium in Chicago. Before arriving at New Covenant Lutheran Church in Morganton, he served congregations in Greensboro, NC; York, PA; New York City; Chicago; Hickory, NC; Antioch Lutheran Church, Dallas, NC; and as campus pastor at Lenoir-Rhyne University. In addition to his parish ministry he serves on the North American Lutheran Seminary faculty teaching the theology and practice of worship; on the NALC Commission on Theology and Doctrine; and on the NALC Commission for Ecumenism. He and his wife, Claudia Earle, have five adult children.

Homecoming Guest Preacher

September 13, 2026

Pastor Andrew F. Weisner, a native of North Carolina, was prepared for ministry at Lenoir-Rhyne College, the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, PA, the Catholic University of America, Washington, DC; and completed doctoral studies in Church history at a theological consortium in Chicago. Before arriving at New Covenant Lutheran Church in Morganton, he served congregations in Greensboro, NC; York, PA; New York City; Chicago; Hickory, NC; Antioch Lutheran Church, Dallas, NC; and as campus pastor at Lenoir-Rhyne University. In addition to his parish ministry he serves on the North American Lutheran Seminary faculty teaching the theology and practice of worship; on the NALC Commission on Theology and Doctrine; and on the NALC Commission for Ecumenism. He and his wife, Claudia Earle, have five adult children.