Easter Services April 14, 18, & 21

Let's celebrate Christ as a living message in us, from us, and as us in this special Easter season.

Mothers Day Service May 12

Come experience the humility of the Divine Feminine as we show the women of our lives how loved and important to us that they are.

Fathers Day Service June 16

You're invited to appreciate the men in our lives on this special day with a Father's Day breakfast. Bring that special man that you feel needs to know how wonderful he is and share in a great breakfast at our church to honor the men.

SUMMER DREAMS

JUN. 8 6-7:30 p.m.

Join us at Unity Church of San Marcos, as we offer a silent auction for Clean Start, our social action program that helps the homeless in our area reconnect to a sense of their self worth, their community, and with love, their sense of a future. Bring your family and friends to share in the fun.

Artist, Coe Savage has created this masterpiece, Lemonade by the Lake, for us to offer at our auction. Come, bid on this and other wonderful items as you enjoy a meal and music and a great evening in Texas. All proceeds go to develop the Clean Start initiative in San Marcos.

THE TRUTH IS...

One God, One Humanity, Many Stories

“When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and when you pass through the rivers, they will not sweep over you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not set you ablaze.” ISA 43:2

This verse is special to me...it has encouraged me in times of deep waters of grief or the fires of depression knowing Spirit is with me. I initially believed that if I was living in Truth meant that my life would eventually be completely at peace, abundantly supplied financially, and nothing would ever, ever go wrong. Thankfully, today I know better. What it means to me today is that living in Truth means I go through all of the different diversity life brings my way knowing I am One with God, and Spirit is with me in all ways in all things.

Our church and our prayer friends have been full of living prayers walking into and through life-deepening relationships with the inspiring people who share their stories with us- of how they have been scared, or disappointed and torn open by life, and yet they and we are somehow carried through those experiences, as if they had been picked up out of deep drowning waters by invisible hands, and then set down on a fresh new shore to begin again in ways we or they'd never anticipated.

Our Unity theme this year is One God, One Humanity, Many Stories...Sometimes it is said that if you knew another person's story, you couldn't help but love them. As our church begins to expand and welcome new members to our group, whether they are younger, dissimilar to us, or really just like us, let us remember that yet a greater story overarches all of us: We are all one. Each of us has known hardship and heartbreak, just as each of us has known joy and love.

If we go only by the stories, some people have overcome unimaginable adversity while others seem to have been blessed with all a human being could ever want. Despite the appearance of separate bodies, individual personalities, and different pursuits, we are one humanity. Like a prism divides light into a rainbow of colors, we humans express Spirit in infinite ways. One God, one humanity, many stories.

Perhaps where you are in the story has left you feeling less than you once were or less than capable...of going through a sea of difficulty, or even the fires of oppression and feeling all alone. I encourage you to come pray with us. I pray all of you have the opportunity to know the story of one another so that you find the truth....God has walked into or through the waters or fires with you, and is there with you as you emerge as well. One God, One Humanity, Many Stories making our lives so much better.

Think on these things...Blessings, Rev. Paula Skiles
