A NOTE FROM REVEREND PAULA SKILES

Response to the Covid-19 Pandemic

Our church board is following the recommendation of the CDC to limit gatherings to no more than 10 people to taking action to aid in preventing a pandemic. We will not be doing services on Sunday from Mar 22 through Apr 5. At that point we are praying life and health will have been established in our country again and we will consider what actions are needed at that time as well.

Let not your heart be troubled as each of us take sane and prudent actions to prevent a pandemic. Even in the midst of uncertainty, God is Present and Divine Order reveals itself as Love prevails. As an old eastern idiom says, "Trust God, but tie up your camel."

Please let this beautiful poem comfort you in this time of needing to remember Love and Divine Order will prevail.

Lockdown by Richard Hendrick

Yes there is fear.

Yes there is isolation.

Yes there is panic buying.

Yes there is sickness.

Yes there is even death.

But,

They say that in Wuhan after so many years of noise

You can hear the birds again.

They say that after just a few weeks of quiet

The sky is no longer thick with fumes

But blue and grey and clear.

They say that in the streets of Assisi

People are singing to each other

across the empty squares,

keeping their windows open

so that those who are alone

may hear the sounds of family around them.

They say that a hotel in the West of Ireland

Is offering free meals and delivery to the housebound.

Today a young woman I know is busy spreading fliers with her number

through the neighbourhood

So that the elders may have someone to call on.

Today Churches, Synagogues, Mosques and Temples

are preparing to welcome

and shelter the homeless, the sick, the weary

All over the world people are slowing down and reflecting

All over the world people are looking at their neighbours in a new way

All over the world people are waking up to a new reality

To how big we really are.

To how little control we really have.

To what really matters.
To Love.
So we pray and we remember that
Yes there is fear.
But there does not have to be hate.
Yes there is isolation.
But there does not have to be loneliness.
Yes there is panic buying.
But there does not have to be meanness.
Yes there is sickness.
But there does not have to be disease of the soul
Yes there is even death.
But there can always be a rebirth of love.
Wake to the choices you make as to how to live now.
Today, breathe.
Listen, behind the factory noises of your panic
The birds are singing again
The sky is clearing,
Spring is coming,
And we are always encompassed by Love.
Open the windows of your soul
And though you may not be able to touch across the empty square,
Sing.
