This memorial banner project aims to raise awareness of the opioid epidemic and reduce the stigma associated with people who have lost their lives due to the disease of substance use disorder.

The project also recognizes the grief felt by families and friends in our community who have lost a loved one as a result of drug use. The banners signify the passing of someone cherished and sends a message that drug-related death is preventable, and those who are suffering should feel no shame in asking for help.

The banners are displayed in Bethlehem on the SteelStacks campus of ArtsQuest during the month of September (National Recovery Month). Banners with new submissions are created each year and hung alongside previously created banners. New photo submissions are accepted (at no cost) by ArtsQuest each year only during the month of July. No need to resubmit photos previously displayed on banners.
