

Heal the Root to Heal the Fruit

The Reconnection Community

Hope, Help, and Healing for Fractured Families

Families with addiction often experience strained relationships.

The Reconnection Community offers practical and effective techniques to help us understand and heal our relationships with our non-addicted family members, especially adult children and/or grandchildren.

This program is designed for those struggling to reconnect with their estranged family members. Ongoing offerings include various series using multi-media & book studies, professionally led workshops, and guided discussions within a supportive group. These take place in-person at OASIS Community Center on Mondays, 3:30 to 5:00 pm.

Our next series begins in Fall 2026
