

DOG PARK ETIQUETTE:

Where humans are tolerated, and dogs are celebrated!
Before you unleash your inner pup, let's go over a few fun guidelines to keep the tails wagging and the barks happy:

1. No Hooman Left Behind!

Dogs must always have their human escorts. Think of them as your personal butler—handy for treat delivery and poop cleanup.

2. Leashes, Schملهashes!

We love to run free, but only INSIDE the park. Keep your humans attached to the leash until you're safely in, then let the zoomies commence!

3. The Poop Fairy Isn't Real.

Sorry, humans, but you've got to pick up after us. Trust us, stepping in it won't make you lucky—just stinky.

4. Hoomans, Eyes Up!

This isn't your phone's time to shine. Keep an eye on your doggos—they're busy plotting escape routes and sneaky treat heists!

5. Wait for the All-Clear!

If your dog gets a little too excited around new friends, it's cool! Just stay in your car until the current furry crowd clears out. Think of it as your dog's pre-game pep talk before entering the field!

6. Don't Be THAT Human.

You know the one—talking loudly on the phone, oblivious to the dog that's reenacting "Mission: Impossible" by climbing the fence. Stay present!

7. Mind the Gate!

Coming or going, make sure the gate is securely closed behind you. We don't need any impromptu jailbreaks or extra surprise guests sneaking in!

8. Water, Not Mud Baths.

Feel free to hydrate like a champ, but remember, this isn't a spa. Let's try to keep the digging for treasure to a minimum.

9. Clock Out on Time!

When your dog's playtime is up, please wrap it up like a pro! Gather your toys, leash up your furry friend, clean off any mud trophies, and exit the field on time. The next pack of pups is ready for their turn in the spotlight—don't keep them waiting!

10. Leave No Trace.

Aside from your dog's glorious fur, nothing should be left behind. Double-check for poop, toys, and any personal items before you leave.

Most importantly, have fun! The dog park is a place for freedom, friendship, and a little bit of fur-covered chaos. Woof on!
