

A Way of Contradictions

Taylor McDaniel

Lorraine Hutchison

$\text{♩} = 127$

C F C G F

1. There is a way of con - tra - dic - tions, one where lo - sing brings us
2. There is a way of con - tra - dic - tions where the law is set a -
3. With-in this way of con - tra - dic - tions, there is hap - pi - ness through

8 C F G F C F

gain. side, tears. Where the And the Where the things promp - tings of the wis - dom we ac - com - plish, in the world, Spi - rit in our hearts giv - en is not mea -

15 C G C G C F C

are all but vain. Where the act of self sub - mis - sion is more be - comes our guide. Where the sim - ple - ness of ask - ing, more than sured by our years. Where the ser - vant is the great - est and the 22

F G F C F G F

pow - er - ful than war. And the giv - ing of our tel - ling, pleads our case. Where we long for the Day of hum - ble man ex - cels. This the long way of con - tra -

28

C G C F C G C

bod - y leads to life for - ev - er - more.
Judge - ment, with our judge, both face - to face.
dic - tions where, in love, our Fa - ther dwells.