

Hold Thou The Hand

T. McDaniel

T. McDaniel

$\text{♩} = 125$

E A B

Hold thou the hand that once held the sea. Which taught all the waves to
 2. This hand that will write His law on thy heart. In strength holds thee up where -
 3. This pure jea - lous had, this hand of re - form in love reach - es out cor -
 4. This pit - e - ous hand, his firm touh of care. The sure work - ing in of the

A E E Em E Esus4 E A

7 roll faith - ful - ly Grasp thou this hand that grasps now for thee. That ev - er thou art. This true migh - ty - hand - which first set a - part the rect - ing and warm. This soft ten - der hand which draws to em - brace. The Lord's cross to bear. The high lift - ing up by calm help - ing hand. The

E B E B E

13 prompts thy dear soul just to plead hold thou me.
 day from the night, in the light holds my heart.
 sure hand of time which pro - vides need - ed grace.
 wise know - ing touch which all needs un - der - stands.

5. Hold thou the hand that now holds your breath.
 Hold thou the hand that alone conquered death.
 Hold thou the hand that holds Heaven's key.
 His kingdom will come, will be done to hand to thee.