

I Trust You, I Promise

T. McDaniel

Taylor McDaniel

$\text{♩} = 160$

D Em A G D

1. I trust you will o - pen the doors that should be o - pen. I
2. I trust in the mor - ning of end - less new mer - cies. I
3. I trust in the Word, who in life was de - pen - dent. I
4. I trust in a hope borne of real ex - pec - ta - tion. I

G Em A D

9 prom - ise to leave all the closed doors a - lone. I trust prom - ise to trea - sure each sun - rise I see. I trust prom - ise to plead for His help ev' - ry day. I trust prom - ise to feed on what ed - i - fies Thee. I trust

G D G

18 in your lead - ing your gui - ding I hope in. I prom - ise to in Thy spi - rit a - mid con - tro - ver - sies. I prom - ise to He will an - swer in tones most re - splen - dent. "I prom - ise to you will grant me Thy grace in temp - ta - tion. I prom - ise to

D G<sup>6</sup> A G D

27 fol - low your foot - steps back home.
heed when He spea - keth to me.
guide you, though rough be the way."
give all my life un - to Thee.