

Listen For His Whisper

T.M.

T. McDaniel

♩ = 96

D^b A^b D^b

1. The pil - lars of this earth are shak - ing. The
2. The fil - lers of our time are bur - ning. The
3. The winds a - bout us blow con - fu - sion, Stir

G^b D^b

3 in - tri - cate ma - chi - ner - y of man, op - tions for our day's e - vents are few. While — ring up our ma - ny ma - ny cares. The

G^b D^b

5 Brought — to a stand - still — by earth's — qua - king — things of time are bur - ning, will this cre - ate a yearn - ing To thoughts of men we see, to be no - thing but il - lu - sion Real

A^b D^b G^b

7 Si — lenced with - out a plan. In the si - lence do we lis - ten? Do we seek His face for clear - er view? In the see - king do we lis - ten? Do we com fort comes by way of prayer. In our pray - ing do we lis - ten? Do we

10 D A

turn to Him by choice? For in the si - lence sep - a - rate from noise? For in the si - lence thank Him and re - joice? For in the si - lence

12 Slowing down a little G A D

not the sha - king We will hear His still small voice.
 not the bur - ning We will hear His still small voice.
 not the wind - storm We will hear His still small voice.

CHORUS

14 a tempo A D G

Lis - ten for His whis - per. For His still small

17 D G D

voice. For He is here! And our eyes have heard! In

20 A D

wee - ping we re - joice.