Pitch the Editors 2027

Your pitch deserves more than silence.

You already did the hard work.

You found the story. Did the research. Crafted the pitch.

Now comes the hardest part: getting an editor's attention.

What if you could skip the inbox?

Instead of waiting for a response, imagine discussing your story idea directly with an editor.

That's what Pitch the Editors makes possible.

Eight minutes. One-on-one. Your opportunity.

Pitch the Editors guarantees at least one eight-minute meeting with an editor.

Share your idea, make a connection, and get your story in front of someone who can commission it.

More than a meeting.

Get ready to make your pitch count with:

- Two live pitch practice sessions
- Editor interviews and insights
- Resources to strengthen your pitch

Walk in prepared. Pitch with confidence.
