THE LAST MILE OF THE WAY 5/29/74

If I walk in the pathway of duty, If I work till the close of the day, I shall see the great King in His beauty. When I've gone the last mile of the way, If for Christ I proclaim the glad story, If I seek for his sheep gone astray, I am sure He will show me His glory, when I've gone the last mile of the way. Here the dearest of ties we must sever. Tears of sorrow are seen every day. But no sickness, no sighing forever. When I've gone the last mile of the way. And if here I have earnestly striven, and have tried all His will to obey, 'Twill enhance all the rapture of heaven, When I've gone the last mile of the way, When I've gone the last mile of the way, I will rest at the close of the day. And I know there are joys that await me, When I've gone the last mile of the way.

We the members of the Wentworth Baptist Church want to extend our deepest sympathy to the family of Gladys H. Keneson.

IN MEMORY OF 5/24/74

GLADYS HELEN

[HOWARD] KENESON

On May 1, 1974, Gladys was called home to be with the Lord, after a long illness, for years in ill health. How wonderful it is that Our Lord releases us from all the sufferings. The Scripture says, To be absent from the body, is to be present with the Lord; which is far better.

The beautiful floral Tributes that were in the Sanctuary, and the folks gathered at the Wentworth Baptist Church spoke volumes of words that could not be uttered in their feelings toward that wonderful person whose life spoke well of her in just the way she lived it.

Her family and friends gathered there to say their last farewells here on this earth. Rev. G. Richard Mountfort, Pastor of the Atwell Hill Church, officiated at the service. He spoke lovingly of her, and how she had lived as a Christian. (a poem written by Charles A. Wright) was read by the Pastor, as follows:

In this church upon the hilltop

Let us linger here awhile

To recall her loving-kindness

And the treasure of her smile.

Many years, as wife and mother.

She has worked and did her best

Let us add a last "God Bless You."

As we lay her down to rest.

The song Bringing in the Sheaves, was one of her favorites, and played at intervals throughout the service. Gladys had lived on the hill all of her life, and had gone to the little school and the church. In 1949 she was baptized and given the right hand of fellowship and became a member and had been a good member in good standing ever since.

Her last Sunday at church services was January 6, 1974, Communion Sunday, and she remarked how lovely the Communion table looked.

Her father was George W. Howard, and her mother, Flora (Loud) Howard, brothers and sister Ernest, Frank, Ray and Theda, of which Frank and Theda are still living.

Those of us that knew her loved her, she leaves a vacant spot but memories "I'm sure" will continue for years.
