

For about a year, more
Ladd wrote news items from East Orford in the Woodsville News-Times

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

Miss Aris Ladd is back in Plymouth working as waitress at the Open Gate, her second season there.

Mrs. Marion Hook, formerly of Connecticut, and Mrs. Eleanor Chase and sister, Mrs. Virginia Latham, have been working at Lake Morey and Lake Fairlee cleaning camps.

Miss Dorice Pease of Wentworth was an evening caller of Mrs. Mable Pease and family last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Miller of New York are back again for the Summer. Camp Moosilauke will open very soon.

Miss Shirley Chase has been spending the last few days with her grandmother, Mrs. Warren Chase, and her aunt, Mrs. Oscar Ladd, while her mother was working.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd were visitors in Plymouth Sunday to see Aris.

Mr. and Mrs. William Belyea were callers of Mrs. Oscar Ladd and Mrs. Eleanor Chase Sunday evening.

Ollie Mack visited friends in Piermont the past two weeks.

East Orford was shocked at the news of Mrs. Prescott's death.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bischoff and family are very happily settled in Gray Shelter, property formerly owned by Mrs. W. S. Baer, Mrs. E. D. Scott.

Forty-nine motorcycles went dashing through town, off to the races.

George Chase of White Plains, N. Y., was a week-end guest of his mother, Mrs. Alma Chase.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Miller and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chase and Miss Shirley, Howard, Gerald and Francis Pease, all from here took in the movies at Fairlee, Vt., Gene Autry in "The Last Roundup."

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd and Ollie Mack called on Mr. and Mrs. John Lattie on Atwell Hill.

Mrs. Shirley Nutter and sister, Joyce, are spending a few weeks in Greenfield, Mass., with their grandmother.

Maurice and Stanley Chase and "Bud" Hook are working in Wentworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd, Ollie Mack, Irene Pease and Mrs. Eleanor Chase and daughter, Shirley, attended church services on Atwell Hill Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Pease, Mrs. Mable Pease and Irene and Arthur were visitors in West Rumney Sunday at their sister's, Mrs. Vernie Burnham's.

Mrs. Alice Palmer and daughter, Miss Mable Willis, R.N., arrived here Monday for the Summer. Miss Willis is nurse for Camp Moosilauke.

Mrs. Inez Perry is spending a few days with her daughter, Lindsie Mae Ladd.

Mrs. Oscar Ladd was in Hanover on business.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

A family reunion was held with Mrs. Mable Pease Sunday, her son, Glenn R. Pease, and his family, her daughters, Mrs. Bertha Crosby, Mrs. Edna McAntire, Mrs. Vernie Burnham and Miss Dorice Pease, and their families; there were 50 present, all except three.

Miss Connie Chase, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Chase, was majorette in the July 4 parade at Orford Monday.

Miss Ruth Ladd was at home for a few days after spending a vacation with friends in Maine. Miss Ladd and Miss Hope Jackson of Springfield, Vt., have gone to Burlington, Vt., to attend Summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Simpson and daughter were Sunday callers of her sisters, Eleanor Chase and Lindsie Mae Ladd.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester R. Hook, sr., of Connecticut are spending a few weeks at their farm at Mt. Cube.

Relatives from Connecticut spent July 4 with Mr. and Mrs. Lester E. Hook.

Mrs. Inez Perry spent the week-end with her daughter, Mrs. Eleanor Chase, and returned to Glencliff Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Marsh and family were callers of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Chase Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd, Ollie Mack, Mrs. Eleanor Chase, Shirley Irene Pease and Mrs. Alice Palmer attended church services on Atwell Hill Sunday.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

Mrs. Dorothy Gould, R.N., is taking care of Mrs. Fauner at Camp Pemigewasset.

Avis Ladd and friends of Plymouth were callers at her home Sunday afternoon, July 10.

Shirley Chase and Quentien Mack are attending Bible school at Oorfordville.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd, Ollie Mack, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chase and Shirley attended services at Rumney camp ground one night last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Belyea and Mrs. Inez Perry were callers of Mrs. Eleanor Chase and Lindsie Mae Ladd Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Lindsie Mae Ladd has been quite ill the past few days. Her mother, Mrs. Inez Perry, is with her for a while.

Mrs. Lester Hooks' family returned to Connecticut after spending a week with her.

Mrs. Hook is helping Mrs. Eleanor Chase this week while Mrs. Ladd is ill.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

Leonard Saltmarsh of Concord was a week-end visitor at the home of Warren Chase.

Mrs. Ines Perry is visiting at the home of her daughter, Eleanor Chase, this week.

Miss Ruth Ladd is home after being away at Summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Currier were callers of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Currier, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Simpson and Kathleen and Mrs. Laura Simpson called on Mr. and Mrs.

Mrs. Dorothy Gould is here for nursing for six weeks at Camp Penningwasset.

Lindsie Mae Ladd and Eleanor Chase, also Shirley were in Glencliff Saturday night, bringing Mrs. Ines Perry home with them.

Miss Marion Chase, Mrs. Edith Chase and Leonard Saltmarsh were evening callers of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chase Saturday.

Lester Hook and Stanley Chase were in Plymouth Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Currier were in Bradford, Vt., on Wednesday.

Miss Marion Chase of Concord is home visiting for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tatham were overnight visitors of her sister, Mrs. Stanley Chase, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Belyea called on relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. Edna Simpson and friends of Plymouth were in town Wednesday.

Miss Mabel Willis and Mrs. Betty Kilgus have been quite ill for the past week. Dr. Hammond made several calls.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

Thomas Hartley of Woodsville and sister-in-law, Edna, were overnight guests of her mother, Mrs. Mable Pease.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd, Ollie Mack, Mrs. Eleanor Chase and Shirley, Miss Shirley Nutter and sister, Joyce, and Miss Irene Pease attended church services on Atwell Hill Sunday.

Ruth Ladd returned to Springfield, Vt., to teach school, which opened Sept. 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bischoff and family returned to New York after spending the Summer in Gray Shelter, their new Summer home.

Miss Shirley Chase and Quention Mack are stating school at Orfordville Wednesday.

Ruth Ladd returned home Monday after visiting friends in Little Falls, N. J., for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gould and son and Ruth and John Ladd attended Canaan Fair Tuesday.

Mrs. Oscar Ladd was in Plymouth last Thursday visiting her daughter and Mrs. Homer Simpson.

Miss Marion Chase returned to Concord after spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Chase.

Miss Avis Ladd spent Sunday afternoon and Monday morning at home, returning to Plymouth in the afternoon to resume work as waitress at the Open Gate.

Miss Irene Pease took first prize on several of her canned fruit and vegetables, at the Canaan Fair. She's in the Mt. Cube 4-H club.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Daisy and sons were in Plymouth one day last week.

Mrs. Oscar Ladd is working at Camp Penningwasset for a few days during the illness of one of their helpers.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Lowd of Massachusetts and Mrs. Winnifred Jackson are spending a few days with their cousin, Mrs. Glenn Pease.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Putnam of East Haverhill called on her sister, Mrs. Stanley Chase, Sunday.

Penrose Chase of Norwich, Vt., and family took his grandmother, Mrs. Alma Chase, and Charles Chase through the White Mountains, Sunday, Aug. 29.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

Mrs. Alma Chase has been at the Mary Hitchcock hospital in Hanover for observation.

Charles Gilbert of Wentworth has been helping Glen Pease put up a silo.

Mrs. Phoebe Baker was a caller of Mrs. Oscar Ladd.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hatch of Glencliff called on Mr. Hatch's cousin, Mrs. Eleanor Chase.

Miss Ruth Ladd was home from Springfield, Vt., where she teaches.

Dorice Pease of Wentworth visited her mother, Mrs. Mable Pease, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. William Belyea, Wilma and Mrs. Inez Perry were callers of Mrs. Eleanor Chase.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Pease attended funeral services for "Ed" Pease in Warren Aug. 22.

Avis Ladd and friends of Plymouth took in a football game in Boston.

Miss Ruth Ladd and Mrs. Walter Gould and son, Richard, went to New York to visit for a few days.

Mrs. Inez Perry returned to Glencliff where she is staying with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Belyea called on Mrs. Stanley Chase.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd, Ollie Mack, Miss Irene Pease and Mrs. Alice Palmer attended church services on Atwell Hill.

Stanley Chase and Lester Hook were haying the Frank Newton farm on Atwell Hill last week.

E. ORFORD

By Carolyn Sautters

18148

Mrs. Inez Perry is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Oscar Ladd for a few weeks.

Ruth Ladd was home over the week-end from Springfield, Vt.

George Chase of White Plains, N. Y., is home visiting his mother, Mrs. Alma Chase.

Avis Ladd went to Concord Monday where she will take a year's course in Margaret's Beauty school.

Mrs. Flora Howard went home Friday after spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. Glenn Pease.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd and Avis, Ollie Mack, Irene Pease, Mrs. Inez Perry and Shirley and Joyce Nutter attended church services on Atwell Hill Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Currier from West Plymouth were afternoon callers of his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Currier.

Lester E. Hook and Stanley Chase are bundling balsam for "Don" Tatham this week.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

115148

Howard Pease was home Sunday from Orford street where he is working for Walter Dennis.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd and Avis and Charles Ladd went to Ashland, to A. M. Morton's orchard Sunday afternoon.

Henry Horton, Walter Mack and Oscar Ladd built a roof on Glenn Pease's silo one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd and Avis, Ollie Mack, Miss Irene Pease, Mrs. Eleanor Chase and Shirley and Joyce and Shirley Nutter attended church services on Atwell Hill Sunday. Rev. Winfield Holman of Milton Mills, Sunday school missionary was speaker.

Mr. Amos Chase of Wentworth, has come to make his home with his grandparents, Mrs. Harry Daisy.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Daisy have purchased the Virgil Prettyman place, better known as the Dan Simpson place.

Miss Avis Ladd was home over the week-end from Concord.

Mrs. Oscar Ladd and Mrs. Eleanor Chase attended the Mites Society at the home of Mrs. Gladys Brown last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Alma Chase was a visitor in Fairlee one day this week.

Rufus Chase got a bob-cat this week.

Mrs. Inez Perry is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Eleanor Chase.

Miss Ruth Ladd was home over the week-end.

Mrs. Charles Ladd, John and Ruth were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Judd Friday evening.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

Miss Avis Ladd was home from Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tatham of Wentworth are building a house on the crossroad leading from the old schoolhouse.

Harland Putnam and sister, Sharon, of East Haverhill, spent a day with her grandmother, Mrs. Inez Perry.

Rufus Chase shot a buck.

Mr. and Mrs. William Belyea of Glencliff were callers of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chase.

Rev. "Fred" Thorne of Vestal, N. Y., was guest speaker at the Atwell Hill Baptist church Sunday, Dec. 12. He was pastor of that church in 1937. He came to see his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lattie, Saturday night and returned to New York Sunday afternoon.

Raymond Keneson was a caller at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd Saturday evening.

Ruth Ladd was home over Friday evening, returning to Springfield Saturday evening.

John Ladd has gone to work for Jack Brady at Lyme, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Simpson and daughter, Kathlee, were callers on Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chase. Mrs. Inez Perry returned home with them to visit for a while.

Miss Avis Ladd was home over Wednesday to attend the Orford High school senior play.

Mr. and Mrs. Penrose Chase and son were callers of his grandmother, Sunday afternoon.

Moostlauke Kennels, formerly owned by Mrs. W. S. Baer and sold to Gordon F. Miller of New York, are being moved by Glenn Pease to the shore of Upper Baker lake.

Lower Baker lake was completely frozen over Sunday morning.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

Mr. and Mrs. William Crosby of Uxbridge, Mass., are spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Mable Pease, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester E. Hook spent a week at Christmas time in Connecticut with their folks, returning here Jan. 3.

Lester Hook and Stanley Chase were in Brookline one day this week on business.

Charles Ladd called on Mrs. Nettie Wright Thursday evening. John Ladd has returned home after working six weeks in Lyme for Jack Brady. Ruth Ladd spent the week-end at home.

Harry Daisy is working for Misses Lucy Worthington and Alice Herrin.

Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Bailey were callers of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd Thursday evening.

Ladies' Mites society met at the home of Mrs. Alson Browns Thursday afternoon and the White Cross quota was discussed. Lunch was served and an enjoyable time had. There were seven members present, and five visitors.

Mrs. Inez Perry is in Glencliff with her daughter, Mrs. William Belyea.

Miss Avis Ladd was home for the New Year week-end, returning to Concord Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chase and Shirley and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tatham were Sunday evening callers of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

Atwell Hill Baptist church service was well-attended Sunday. Rev. Ralph Bailey had with him a guest speaker, Miss Moulton, a missionary from Brazil.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Currier were callers of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Currier, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Eleanor Chase called on her sister, Mrs. Lindsie Mae Ladd, Friday afternoon.

Sgt. Edward Chase is home for 30 days from Westover Field, Mass.

Callers at the home of Oscar Ladd Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Collins and family, Charles Ladd, Walter Gould and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tatham.

Misses Ruth Ladd and Avis Ladd were home for over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hook were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gould Saturday evening.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

Avis Ladd was home for the week-end, returning to school in Concord Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chase and daughter, Shirley, were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester E. Hook Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd and Avis, called on Mr. and Mrs. Norman Currier of Plymouth Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd and Avis and Mrs. Eleanor Chase were in Plymouth Monday on business. They called on the girl's sister, Mrs. Edna Simpson while there.

Miss Irene Pease spent the evening with Miss Avis Ladd Sunday.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bischoff of Melrose, N. Y., spent from Friday until Sunday at their summer home.

Maurice Chase got a bobcat last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Belyea and Mrs. Inez Perry were callers of Mrs. Stanley Chase and Mrs. Oscar Ladd Thursday afternoon.

Prayer meeting was held with Mr. and Mrs. David Kenerson Thursday night. Rev. Ralph Bailey showed several pictures on a picture slide. There were quite a few children there and they enjoyed a belated Christmas story of Joseph and Mary and their journey into Bethlehem.

Charles and John Ladd have been quite ill with colds. Dr. Hammond was out to see them Thursday; they are both much better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chase were in Plymouth Monday on business.

Miss Ruth Ladd was home for the week-end to visit her dad and brother.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

Glenn Pease is cutting ice on Upper Baker lake. Ice is only 11 inches thick.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd, Avis and Stanley Chase were in Plymouth Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. William Crosby returned to their home in Uxbridge, Mass., after spending a few weeks with their mother, Mrs. Mabel Pease.

Thursday night prayer meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Latue preceded by the Ladies' Mites society meeting, and supper. There were 21 present for supper, eight ladies to the society meeting, and 11 stayed for prayer service.

Dr. Hammond called two days at the home of Harry Daisy, whose boys have been quite ill with flu.

Lawrence Daise is staying with Lester Hook this winter, and working for Stanley Chase.

Mrs. Walter Gould is not feeling very good at this writing.

Miss Avis Ladd was home over the week-end, returning to Concord Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. William Belyea and Mrs. Inez Perry were Sunday afternoon callers on Mrs. Stanley Chase and Mrs. Oscar Ladd.

"Johnnie" Currier was home from Boston, Mass., to visit his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Currier, Sunday.

The snow storm Monday, Jan. 31, proved fatal to a big truck which overturned on the Wentworth-Orford road, just beyond Jesse Currier's place. The driver escaped unharm.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

Francis Pease hurt his knee while helping pack ice for Camp Moolauke. He went to Plymouth hospital for an x-ray. There are no bones broken or cracked. He's up and around with the aid of crutches.

Mrs. Eleanor Chase visited school in Orfordville and the children had a Valentine party.

Prayer meeting was held in the vestry and a Valentine party followed. Refreshments were served. Quite a few attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd and Ollie Mack called on Mr. and Mrs. William Belyea.

Mrs. Rufus Chase, Mrs. Edith Chase, and Mrs. Harry Daisy were in Fairlee, Vt.

Mrs. Oscar Ladd called on Mrs. Leighton Perry in Orfordville.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

Gerald Pease was confined at home all of last week with the flu. Mrs. Theda Pease is quite ill at this writing.

Mrs. Maywood Chase returned home from Windsor, Vt., last Wednesday.

Sgt. Edward Chase is back in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd and Avis, with Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Bailey of Rumney Depot, went to Boston Monday where they attended the board of directors' meeting of the New England Fellowship of Evangelicals, and evening service, with Rev. William Ward Ayers, of the Calvary Baptist church of New York, as guest speaker.

Prayer meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Kenson last Friday night. World Day of Prayer was observed.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gould are the parents of a son born Saturday.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

Mrs. Oscar Ladd and daughter, Avis, and Mrs. Stanley Chase and daughter, Shirley, of Orford were visitors of their sister, Mrs. William Belyea, Tuesday, Feb. 22. Their mother, Mrs. Inez Perry, returned home with them for a short stay.

Miss Eunice Dexter of Topsham, Vt., spent a recent night with Miss Avis Ladd. Both girls returned to Concord the next day to school.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Chase of Manchester were visitors of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Chase.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Mackintire and children of Newport spent an afternoon and evening with his grandmother, Mrs. Mabel Pease, and uncle, Glenn Pease.

The prayer service of the Atwell Hill Baptist church met with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chase the week of Feb. 17.

Carl Ricker of the New England Fellowship was guest speaker at the Atwell Hill church Sunday, Feb. 20.

His wife, Mrs. Ruth Ricker, had devotionals of the Thursday evening prayer service at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd Feb. 24.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

Miss Avis Ladd was home from Concord over the week-end of March 27.

Mr. and Mrs. William Belyea were afternoon callers Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd and Stanley Chase. Miss Ruth Ladd was home from Springfield, Vt., for over Sunday.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Chase of Manchester were week-end visitors of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Chase.

Ladies' society of Atwell Hill Baptist church met with Mrs. Eleanor Chase last Tuesday afternoon. Two of the eldest members, Mrs. Flora Howard and Mrs. Mable Pease, were present, making a total of 10. Devotional were led by President Mrs. Eleanor Chase, after which the yearly business meeting followed. A delightful lunch was served by the hosts.

Mrs. Flora Howard is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Glenn Pease.

Callers on Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd Thursday were Mrs. Marion Hook and Rev. Pruter of Orford street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Belyea were callers Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chase. Mrs. Inez Perry returned home with them.

Leon Chase of Warren was at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Dalsey, Sunday, visiting his father, Amos Chase.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ladd attended the talent show at Warren Saturday night given by the Glencliff-Warren P.T.A. It was very good.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson, Mrs. Nettie Wright and Miss Lillian Wright of Pike were callers of Charles Ladd and Oscar Ladd Sunday.

EAST ORFORD

By Mrs. Lindsie M. Ladd

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perry and daughter, Brenda, North Conway, visited his sisters, Mrs. Clarence Chase, and Mrs. Lindsie Mae Ladd, April 16-17.

Miss Ruth Ladd was home from Springfield, Vt., April 22.

Mr. and Mrs. William Crosby of Uxbridge, Mass., are at their Summer home for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Currier were callers of his parents.

Miss Avis Ladd was home from Concord.