Announces:

Intensive Training Weeks in Sandplay

Week 1: November 4 - 10, 2024

Week 2: November 18 - 24, 2024

Hotel Londres Estoril
Estoril, Portugal

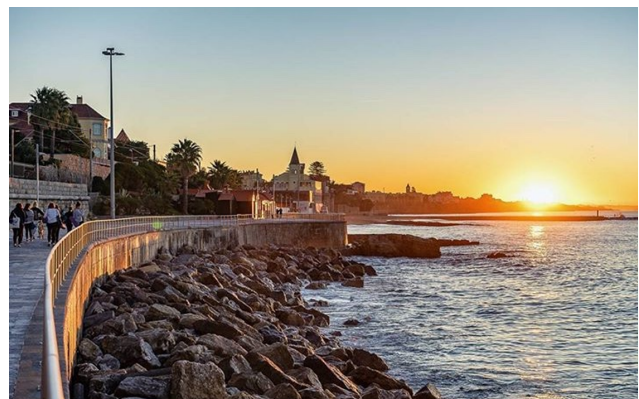

The International Society for Sandplay Therapy is excited to announce two separate Intensive Training Weeks to be held this coming November at the Hotel Londres Estoril, located near the Atlantic coast in a suburb west of Lisbon. Each ITW will be comprised of up to 35 participants and 6 faculty, ISST Teaching Members from multiple countries. An Intensive Training Week is exactly that, an intense, immersive training experience including didactic lectures, case presentations, group supervision, experiential activities, and a mid-week excursion to nearby Sintra, home of the famous Pena Palace and the Initiation Well.

Inspired by the magical atmosphere of these sites, archetypal themes in fairytales will be highlighted throughout each week. ITW teachers will take turns facilitating late evening gatherings focused on a fairytale or myth chosen to amplify case material and “prepare the unconscious for the next day”. Since 2010 ISST has conducted Intensive Training Weeks in the Netherlands, Bulgaria, Poland, Latvia, and Malta. Originally designed to provide introductory Sandplay training in areas where it was not available, the ITW is now designed to accommodate a wider range of trainees interested in experiencing the universality of Sandplay therapy by being part of an international, multi-cultural learning community.

Ulrich Gundermann, IAAP, CST-T (Germany) is a Jungian child analyst who obtained his Diploma from the C.G. Jung Institute of Zurich in 1998. He is a Teaching Member of ISST who has served on the ISST Board of Directors, the C. G. Jung Institute of Stuttgart Board of Directors, as a lecturer and supervisor at C.G. Jung Institute Stuttgart, and as chairman of C.G. Jung Society of Freiburg. Living in Chile from 2019 - 2023, he helped to coordinate training for the Chilean Sandplay Group. He continues to serve on the ISST Board, is editor of the ISST Newsletter, and maintains a private practice providing personal Sandplay process and supervision.

Betty Jackson, LCSW, CST-T (USA) is a clinical social worker who began Sandplay training with Dora Kalff in 1975. She has also trained extensively with ISST TM Agnes Bayley in Pre-Sandplay interventions for attachment issues. She teaches internationally, has been a frequent guest lecturer for the Oriental Academy for Analytical Psychology & Sandplay in Guangzhou, China, has served two terms on the ISST Board and currently serves as Honorary Secretary for the board. She has published articles on Sandplay, co-edited the book, Into the Heart of Sandplay, and maintains a private practice in southeastern Pennsylvania.

Olga Lipadatova PhD, CST-T (Portugal) is an Art Therapist and Teaching Member of ISST who has worked in numerous settings including community organizations, mental health agencies, and private practice. Her Ph.D. research focused on working with immigrants using Jungian psychotherapy and Sandplay. Having lived in Canada from 1996 to 2019, she served on the board and as president of the Canadian Association for Sandplay Therapy. In 2019 she moved to Portugal where she now maintains a private practice, provides Sandplay training internationally, and advocates the use of fairytales, myth, & storytelling to inspire change.

Bert Meltzer, PhD, CST-T (Israel) is a clinical psychologist with a background in developmental and educational psychology. He is a co-founder of the Israeli Society for Sandplay Therapy and is serving his 2nd term on the ISST Board of Directors. He has an extensive background in working with marginalized populations and specializes in working with persons who have experienced severe trauma or are victims of war and terrorism. Dr. Meltzer maintains a private practice in southern Israel. He has a special interest in using creative, non-traditional modifications of Sandplay therapy as crisis intervention to respond to collective trauma.

Takuji Natori MA, CST-T (Japan) is a clinical psychologist, clinical supervisor, and professor of clinical psychology at Kyoto Bunkyo University in Kyoto, Japan. He has served on the ISST Board of Directors and is currently serving his 2nd term as President of ISST. Having begun a collaboration with James Hillman in 2000, his practice is based on archetypal psychology. From 2002 - 2004 he studied at the C. G. Jung Institute of Zurich and also trained with ISST Teaching Members Hayao Kawai, Yasuhiro Yamanaka, Yasunobu Okada, and Kazuhiko Higuchi. Takuji Natori maintains a private practice in Kyoto.
