

IT WAS PURELY USEFUL, AND SIMPLY BEAUTIFUL. But the Arts & Crafts Movement was more than California bungalows and Prairie School villas. It was a blend of Victorian windows, Queen Anne sash, Colonial columns, Gothic half-timbering, Mission dormers and bungalow brackets—all painted in the deep, rich Roycroft colors. And whether you're a craftsman purist, or you just like the look, our Preservation Palette® has all the colors you need for utilitarian beauty.
