

TRUE NORTH K12 LEARNING

104 Education Drive Schenectady, NY 12303

True North K12 is a new educational program in the New York Capital Region that exists for students K-12 needing an alternative to the typical/traditional public or private K-12 education on a temporary basis.

True North K12 was created for the population of students on long term leave from public school. Instead of the traditional 10-15 hours of NYS mandated tutoring per week, True North provides approximately 22 hours of learning time per week, a learning location, a physical education experience, elective courses and an alternative to traditional academics, if needed.

The students who attend True North are typically on long term physical or mental health leave, long term suspension or awaiting placement to another district or institution whereby in-home or virtual tutoring may not be feasible or effective.

True North is also available and equipped to accept Special Education students awaiting placement or for private families simply needing a temporary alternative to the traditional K12 education.

The student to teacher ratio is approximately 2 teachers per 4-5 students.

One to One mentoring is also available for students with highly specialized needs.

District-provided student services such as OT, PT, Speech and Counseling can be accommodated in person or virtually for any student.
