

Pastor Fredrick E. Wilson, II

Pastor Fredrick E. Wilson, II (Pastor FEW) is a lifelong servant of Jesus Christ who answered his call to preach at the age of 11. With more than 40 years of ministerial leadership, he has devoted his life to proclaiming the Gospel, strengthening leaders, and empowering individuals and communities to live with purpose and conviction.

A seasoned pastor, preacher, musician, and spiritual advisor, Pastor Wilson served more than two decades in pastoral leadership and now serves as a faith leader within the nonprofit sector, working at the intersection of faith and community engagement to advance healing, restoration, and transformation.

Pastor Wilson holds a Master of Arts degree in Christian Ministry (MACM), strengthening his commitment to theological depth and strategic leadership. He is the visionary and lead teacher of Morning Glory Nation, an international online ministry connecting believers across Chicago, Houston, St. Louis, North Carolina, and Cape Town, South Africa.

An anointed worship leader and accomplished musician, he has ministered nationally and internationally through preaching and music. He is also a published author and songwriter.

Above all, he is a devoted husband, father, and servant of God whose ministry leaves audiences encouraged, equipped, and inspired.

Visit <https://Fewii.com> for more information.