

October 14, 2020 at 1pm -Zoom

We will be doing a Show & Tell after the business meeting.
More information to come.

Please look in your mail for the link to connect to zoom before the meeting.

November 11, 2020 at 1PM-Zoom

Demo—Diane Raymond will be demonstrating: Mandalas for Relaxation, self-expression and creative growth. She will send out a supply list, if you would also like follow along with her as she demonstrates.

January 13, 2021 at 1PM-Library

Chris Kling—"Figure it Out": How to incorporate figures into your paintings. Ms. Kling has received numerous awards from shows for her landscapes and portraiture throughout the southeastern region of the United States. She works in oil primarily in a traditional manner but with a contemporary flair through color, composition, value, and application of paint.

February 10, 2021 at 1PM-Library

Neil Capozzi proprietor of Stuart Art and Supply and longtime painter primarily in watercolor and oil will discuss proper handling, cleaning, and storage of brushes. And he will also introduce Annie Sloan Chalk paint and waxes.

March 10, 2021 at 1PM-Library

Diane Concepcion owner of Pelican Central Mosaics Arts has been doing mosaics and giving classes for several years. she uses glass, tile, china and other found items to make functional art, or mosaics that are purely artistic.

April 14, 2021 at 1PM-Library

Robert Johnstone, an award winning carving artist who focuses on Marine animals and unique nautical designs. All his creations are one of a kind pieces. Each is born from a specific wood species or unique shape, carefully hand crafted by using natural woods and materials.