April 2021

What's Been Happening

We resumed our monthly meetings at the Library on the second Wednesday of the month at 1pm at the Peter and Julie Cummings Library. We are 76 members strong at the current time and have a good turn out each month. We have a capacity of 36 people. RSVP is necessary for the meetings so we do not exceed the limit. We are looking forward to April 14th with a wood carving demonstration by Bob Johnstone and in May with the Scholarship recipients and presentations.

Betty Betes and Carol Rhode have resumed curator duties at the Cleveland Clinic Wellness Center. So far they have hung 16 paintings with more on the way. Thank you Betty and Carol. More information for future hangings to come.

Jill Heveron-Best in Show

We were able to not miss this year in 32 with the Annual Art Show and Sale! We had some awesome volunteers that helped make this happen. We had 28 members show their work. You can see all the winners on the website. Joanna Masi will be the new chair and we look forward to an excellent show next year.

At the end of this newsletter are some forms for your convenience. Please use the renewal Membership Form when paying your dues this year. We updated the form and included a space for you to let us know the year you joined. Please pay by May 31.

There is also a new updated Venue Label. This is the form you fill out and tape to the back of your artwork when you are hanging at a venue.

Demos at the Library 2021

We started off the year, (after a break from covid-19 restrictions) giving Demonstrations at the Library in JANUARY. Chris Kling gave an informative lesson on how to incorporate figures into your painting.

In FEBRUARY Neil Capozzi, owner of Stuart Art Supply spoke to us about proper care of paint brushes. He also, introduced to us his Annie Sloan Chalk Paint line and the varied uses for it. In March we had a visit from Mosaic Artist, Diane Concepcion from Pelican Central Mosaic in Fort Pierce, where she introduced some to a whole new world of creating art with mosaics.

We are all looking forward to Bob Johnstone's wood carving demonstration on April 14th, and on May 12th we are excited to meet our scholarship recipients and see their presentations.

The 32nd Annual Art Show People's Choice Award went to Diane Raymond with her "Koi Pond" oil painting and Second Place to Suzi Robinett's watercolor, "Hanging Out".

All The winners from the show are now posted on our website at palmcityartassociates.org
