RIVERSIDE COUNTY IN-CUSTODY MARRIAGE INFORMATION

Larry D. Smith Correctional Facility - Banning

The policy of the Riverside County Sheriff's Corrections Division is that inmates may marry while in custody. Inmate marriages are allowed to take place following procedures specific to each facility. Particulars on the process of obtaining a license are referred to the County Clerk.

Marriages may take place in the Visiting Hall of Larry D. Smith Correctional Facility on:

Friday evenings between the hours of 6:30 p.m. and 8:00 p.m.

The parties involved are responsible for all factions of the wedding, including all legal requirements, all costs incurred, and a person to perform the ceremony.

Sheriff's staff will not be involved. The Facility Chaplain will not perform the ceremony.

Information regarding marriages must be obtained from the office of the Riverside County Clerk
