Your Itinerary Highlights

Halifax, Nova Scotia

Located on Canada's scenic Atlantic coast, Halifax offers a perfect blend of maritime history, coastal beauty, and friendly East Coast charm. The cruise port is conveniently located right along the vibrant waterfront boardwalk, making it easy for visitors to explore shops, restaurants, museums, and harbor views just steps from the ship.

Highlights include the historic Halifax Citadel National Historic Site, the beautiful Halifax Public Gardens, and excursions to the world-famous Peggy's Cove Lighthouse, one of the most photographed lighthouses in the world.

Whether enjoying fresh Atlantic seafood, exploring rich maritime history, or taking in the rugged coastal scenery, Halifax offers cruisers a welcoming and memorable Canadian port experience.

Royal Navy Dockyard, Bermuda

An overnight stay in Royal Naval Dockyard gives cruisers the unique opportunity to experience Bermuda beyond a typical port call. Located on the island's western end, the historic Dockyard blends British colonial charm with beautiful ocean views, shopping, dining, and easy access to some of Bermuda's most famous attractions.

During your stay, you can relax on the island's renowned pink-sand beaches, including nearby Horseshoe Bay Beach, explore local shops and museums, or enjoy Bermuda's vibrant nightlife and waterfront restaurants after most day visitors have departed. The extra time in port also makes it easier to venture farther across the island to destinations such as Hamilton and St. George's.

Whether you spend the evening enjoying a sunset by the harbor or taking in Bermuda's laid-back island atmosphere under the stars, an overnight stay at Royal Naval Dockyard offers a more immersive and unforgettable cruise experience.

While docked overnight in Bermuda, you are free to come and go as you please until all aboard time on departure day. While docked the casino and shops will be closed during the day but will reopen in the evening.

Look another ship!

Cruise Ports offer the ability for multiple ships to dock at the same time and enjoy the port. As of August 9, 2026, your neighbors will be:

Port	Ship	Duration
Royal Navy Dockyard	Seven Seas Prestige	4/29 11:00 to 18:00
	Freedom of the Seas	Arrives 4/30 at 08:00

Spirit of St George

Norwegian Cruise Line offers its guests access to a free water shuttle from the Royal Navy Dockyard to St Georges. Check the Freestyle Daily onboard for times.

What is Free at Sea?

Your stateroom was booked with the Free at Sea package.

Unlimited Open Bar

With Norwegian Cruise Line's Free at Sea package, you will enjoy unlimited open bar (alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages) while onboard the ship. There is a wide range of alcoholic beverages to pick from (beer/wine/spirits/seltzers/frozen drinks) and fountain soda.

If the 2nd guest in the stateroom is under 21 years of age, they will receive the Free at Sea Soda Package. They may obtain fountain soda from any bar, lounge or restaurant during the duration of the cruise. This package does not allow for non-alcoholic frozen drinks.

With Norwegian Cruise Line each guest may order 2 drinks at a time.

TAX NOTE: While the ship is docked in certain ports (Boston) there will be taxes applied to your onboard account for drinks and any purchases made onboard, until the ship reaches international waters.

Specialty Dining

Get ready to indulge at one of Norwegian Breakaway's Specialty Restaurants! Whether you want to enjoy a steak at Cagney's, the show at Teppanyaki, or dine alfresco on the waterfront at La Cucina, there is no shortage of dining options. With your package you get to experience specialty dining based on the number of nights of your cruise:

of Nights	# Dining Package Meals
2-4 nights	1 meal
5-6 Nights	2 meals
7-8 Nights	3 Meals
9+ Nights	4 Meals

For your voyage ADULT guests #1 and #2 in each stateroom will enjoy 3 specialty dining meals each.

Guests under the age of 12 are not charged for the dining package at the time of booking and may order off the kids' menu at a specialty restaurant. If they decide to order off the regular menu, the restaurant cover charge will apply.

Shore Excursion Credit

Each stateroom will receive a $50 Shore Excursion Credit per port of call to be used on a Norwegian Cruise Line Shore Excursion.

Sea Talk

Here are some of the words that you may hear onboard your cruise voyage:

FWD/Forward – Front of the ship

AFT/Rear – Back of the ship

PORT – Left side of the ship

STARBOARD – Right side of the ship

LIFT – Another term for the elevator

BRIDGE – Where the Captain is controlling your cruise vacation from

MUSTER STATION – Where you will go at the beginning of your vacation and if directed

LIDO DECK – The main pool deck

MID/MIDSHIP – The middle of the ship

GANGWAY – The walking platform between the ship and the pier

GALLEY - The kitchen

Extra Loungers and Bar Service

Sundeck located on Deck 17 Forward. Go up the steps on the port side of the ship and there are more loungers and a small bar!

SpiceH20

18+ area during the day featuring loungers, outdoor bar, grotto to cool off. This is located Deck 16 AFT

O'Sheehans Neighborhood Bar & Grill

Great spot for breakfast as well as snacks. The Reuben sandwich, spinach & artichoke dip, hot dogs, and wings are all amazing! Located Deck 7 MID

TIP: How Do You Know Which Way Is Forward?

Look down at the hallway carpet. The colorful fish will always swim FWD to the front of the ship.

MUSTER UP

Once you get onboard the ship, go to your muster station for the mandatory check in, grab a drink or visit the dining reservations location onboard or on the app for dining reservations

FINAL NOTE: Once the ship begins to leave the Port of Boston, I always suggest putting your phone into airplane mode.
