

Professional Bio

Lauren Torres

Senior Consultant

lauren@hireeducationconsulting.com

Accounting Manager → Accounting & Finance Recruiter → VP Finance → Talent Advisor

Lauren began her career in accounting working with a technology start-up in the San Francisco Bay Area. Following their merger, Lauren relocated to Boston to lead the accounting department. After several years overseeing the accounting team, she relocated back to California and fell in love with talent advisory, ultimately finding a career as a finance and accounting recruitment professional.

Lauren spent several years working within a recruitment agency before blending both worlds as Lead Recruiter of a hiring practice housed within a national CPA firm. In that role, she performed both local and national recruitment projects for companies across the United States. Lauren moved on to lead the accounting department as VP Finance for a large real estate asset management firm. Once Hire Education Consulting was born, Lauren joined the team as Senior Consultant.

Lauren has experience in various industries, including real estate, tech, professional services, construction and agriculture. Her keen understanding of business operations and passion for helping companies hire better is her secret sauce.

Passions:: Career Development • Online Talent Branding • Policy Improvement

Lauren brings a unique blend of experience in accounting, finance, operations, human resources and talent acquisition.

Education & Professional Affiliations

- Bachelors of Science in Accounting from Sonoma State University
- Accounting & Financial Women's Alliance (AFWA) Member 2016 – 2017
- CalCPA Young & Emerging Professionals (YEP) Member 2016 – 2017

What's the Latest?

<https://hireeducationconsulting.com/media>