“LIFE AND DEATH”

By: Jerry Joseph

Human life is sacred to God and should be to every person. God “. . .giveth to all life, and breath and all things. . .” and “. . . in him we live, and move, and have our being. . .” (Acts 17:25-28).

To further understand God’s view concerning life notice the words in Genesis 9:6, “Whoso sheddeth man’s blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man.” Notice two significant things in this verse, (1) As long as man is made in the “image of God”, man’s life is sacred to God. (2) Those who shed innocent blood (murder) are worthy of death.

As a Christian, we must always respect God and His word concerning the value and sacredness of human life.

As we think about “life and death” and some decisions that need to be made pertaining to such, we need to be reminded of what the Bible teaches.

⇒ Life is a precious gift from God.
Genesis 1:26-27; 2:7; Acts 17:25

⇒ Life is problem-filled (Job 14:1).
There are all kinds of problems we will face in life. As we grow older our physical problems and issues many times will increase. More time is spent with the doctors and in the medical facilities and yet knowing that they do not have the answers to every medical problem.

⇒ Life is passing (James 4:14; Hebrews 9:27; 11:13, 16). Death is coming to all. There is no escaping it. But it is not the end of our existence. There is a better place for the child of God (Philippians 1:21-23; Revelation 14:13).

⇒ Life is preparation time for the future (2 Timothy 4:6-8). As a child of God we do not live “for this world” nor to see what we can obtain, but “for the Lord” (Philippians 1:21).

Whether we live or die, the child of God remembers he belongs to the Lord. Our lives must be guided and governed by God’s Will. If it is, then we can be thankful for this life even at the time of death. As a faithful child of God I must determine to glorify God in my life and in my death.
