RACE DIRECTOR NOTE

I'm excited and honored to once again be the Race Director for the Delhi International Swimathon. We have a great response this year with swimmers from many cities and I am especially excited that a 50m category has been introduced for under 6 year olds to experience a 50m swim.

Please go through the race guidelines so you are well prepared when you arrive at the event. Remember to treat other athletes, volunteers and officials with courtesy and consideration - they have worked just as hard as you.

Best of luck with your final training and preparation. I look forward to watching you race strong and achieve your swim goals!

RACHNA SHARMA
Race Director
