

Parliamentarian DUNNA Position

Since 2023, I was appointed and currently serve as the Parliamentarian for Dillard University National Alumnae Association (DUNNA). In my role, I am knowledgeable in parliamentary procedures, which are drawn from resources like Robert's Rules of Order. I have also assisted with drafting, revising, or editing constitutions, bylaws, and standing rules. Becoming a parliamentarian allows me to contribute to the democratic process in DUNNA by ensuring meetings are conducted efficiently manner by adhering to Robert's Rules of Order for a smoother and professional environment for all parties to operate. Furthermore, I am committed to serving by attending many of the virtual or in-person meetings. Additionally, I am an active member of the Dillard University Metropolitan Detroit Alumnae Chapter where I serve as secretary. In this role, I take and maintain accurate minutes of board meetings. During DUNNA meetings, I have stepped in a report from the Dillard University Metropolitan Detroit Alumnae Chapter. I look forward to serving as the Parliamentarian for DUNNA for the next two years.
