

Tiffani C. Moore is a candidate for the 2025-2027 DUNAA President. Tiffani is an active member of DUNAA's Washington, DC Metropolitan Area Chapter, previously serving on the Bylaws Committee.

Tiffani serves as the 2023-2025 DUNAA President, ascending to the role on July 1, 2023, upon the resignation of Charlie W. Coleman, III, the 30th DUNAA President. She is a member of the Dillard University Board of Trustees. During her tenure as the 31st DUNAA President, the National Alumni Association reactivated chapters in Jackson, MS, Mobile, AL, Houston, TX, and Memphis, TN and established a presence in Jacksonville, FL, Indianapolis, IN, and Nashville, TN.

A Houston, TX native, Tiffani is a 2002 magna cum laude graduate of Dillard University with a Bachelor of Arts in English, the University of Michigan with a Master of Urban Planning, and the University of Virginia with a Master of Business Administration where she was awarded the C. Stewart Sheppard Distinguished Service Award.

Tiffani is a Spring 2001 initiate of the Beta Gamma Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated and is an active member of its Northern Virginia Alumnae Chapter, serving as Treasurer from 2018-2020.

Tiffani is the Manager of the Federal Home Loan Banks Affordable Programs Branch at the Federal Housing Finance Agency, the prudential and mission regulator for the government-sponsored enterprises: Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, and the eleven Federal Home Loan Banks.

Tiffani serves on the following boards and councils: Insight Memory Care Center as President, Good Shepherd Housing & Family Services, Women in Housing & Finance, Incorporated as Immediate Past President, the University of Virginia Darden Alumni Association Board of Directors, and the Jubilee Housing Leadership Council. She is a 2021 graduate of Leadership Fairfax.

As a 14-year volunteer with the Junior League of Washington (JLW), she has supported the JLW in exploring innovative opportunities to strengthen the JLW brand within the greater Washington, DC community and educating JLW members on basic principles and best practices in fund development, resulting in an increase in donations and corporate sponsorships to further the JLW mission.

Tiffani has been recognized by Women in Housing & Finance, Incorporated; the Leadership Center for Excellence, and Dillard University, as a 40 Under 40 Honoree demonstrating excellence in her personal, professional, and philanthropic endeavors.
