

Dr. Latonya Darensbourg, DNP, MSN-HCSM, ARPN, FNP-C is a dedicated nurse practitioner, community advocate, and SHE Leads Fellow with a Master's in Health Systems Management. As a nursing college professor and HRSA mentor, she empowers the next generation of healthcare professionals. Passionate about health equity, she serves as a health educator, addressing disparities and promoting wellness in underserved communities. She is also owner of LCD AdvancedPracticeProviderServices, LLC where she provides preventative care to disenfranchised communities. Darensbourg's commitment to leadership and advocacy embodies her mission to transform lives through education, mentorship, and compassionate care.