

ABOUT CHRISTOPHER L. STEWART

Christopher Stewart, a native of Dallas, Texas, has been an integral part of the New Orleans community since 2004, when he began his studies at Dillard University. He earned a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, demonstrating a strong commitment to leadership and service through active participation in numerous campus organizations, including the Dillard University Concert Choir, Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity Inc., Class Council, and the Royal Court. He further contributed to the university community as a resident assistant and staff member in the university post office.

Building upon his undergraduate experience, Mr. Stewart pursued and obtained a Master of Science in Health and Wellness Management from Tulane University.

For nearly 15 years, Mr. Stewart dedicated his professional career to Dillard University, serving in the Office of Recruitment, Admissions, and Programming. In this role, he played a pivotal role in student recruitment and success, fostering collaborative relationships with student activities, academic affairs, and financial aid departments.

Driven by a desire to broaden his impact, Mr. Stewart transitioned to the corporate sector and currently serves as Assistant Vice President of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion at Hancock Whitney Bank.

Mr. Stewart's commitment to service extends beyond his professional endeavors. He is an active member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity Inc., where he serves as the advisor to the Epsilon Alpha Chapter and as the Director of Collegiate Affairs for the Greater New Orleans area. He is also a dedicated member of United Fellowship Full Gospel Baptist Church, contributing his time and talents as a singer and media director.
