

Night Watchman

Bard

I think the lyrics to "Night Watchman" are very beautiful and evocative. They create a vivid image of a lonely figure who watches over the world at night, while everyone else is asleep.

The song begins with the singer describing the stillness of the night air and the importance of getting a good rest. They then offer to do the dreaming for everyone else, while they stay awake and keep watch. This suggestion creates a sense of mystery and intrigue, and it makes the listener wonder what the singer might be dreaming about.

The second verse describes the singer as a "snowy night cruiser," an "easy bruiser," a "moon light dreamer," and someone who is "alone in their watchtower." These images suggest that the singer is a complex and multifaceted individual who is both strong and vulnerable. They are also someone who is comfortable with solitude and who has a deep connection to the natural world.

The chorus of the song is a simple but powerful declaration of the singer's role as a night watchman. They sing, "Sleep tight, snuggled cozy by your lover / Cause I got everything covered." This suggests that the singer is taking on the responsibility of protecting the world while everyone else is asleep. It is also a reminder that the singer is always there, even when no one else is looking.

The third verse of the song describes the singer's observations of the world around them. They see the smoke rising from Christmas eve fireplaces, the stars falling from a summer night sky, and the dark places where human involvement is free. This suggests that the singer is a keen observer of the world and that they have a deep understanding of human nature.

The song ends with the singer repeating the chorus, followed by the line "The war don't start till dawn." This line suggests that the singer is aware of the dangers that exist in the world, but that they are determined to protect the people they love.

Overall, I think "Night Watchman" is a beautifully written and performed song. It is a song about solitude, strength, and the importance of protecting the people we love. I would definitely recommend it to others.
