➤ Why was Melaka chosen as the venue?

Melaka is a historic state in Malaysia. It is famous for its various stories about the existence of a country and a nation since its opening. Melaka is also famous for the story of a famous warrior, Hang Tuah Lima Bersaudara. This Melaka warrior is a symbol of obedience, loyalty and reliability of their martial art, namely Silat, so that it is famous all over the world. Based on that history, Melaka was chosen as the venue for the World Pencak Silat Championship this time.

➤ about Melaka

Melaka (also called Melaka in Bahasa Malaysia) is a wonderful city for nice daytime activities or for a stay of more than one day. There are quite a few hotels and hostels available, but there are also many homeowners who are willing to put their house in Melaka up for rent. The city has many beautiful attractions, all clearly representing the great history of the city. From Kuala Lumpur you can easily access Melaka by bus, taxi or rental car. Residents of the capital often travel to Melaka during weekends to have a good rest and to enjoy the delicious food which the city is famous for.

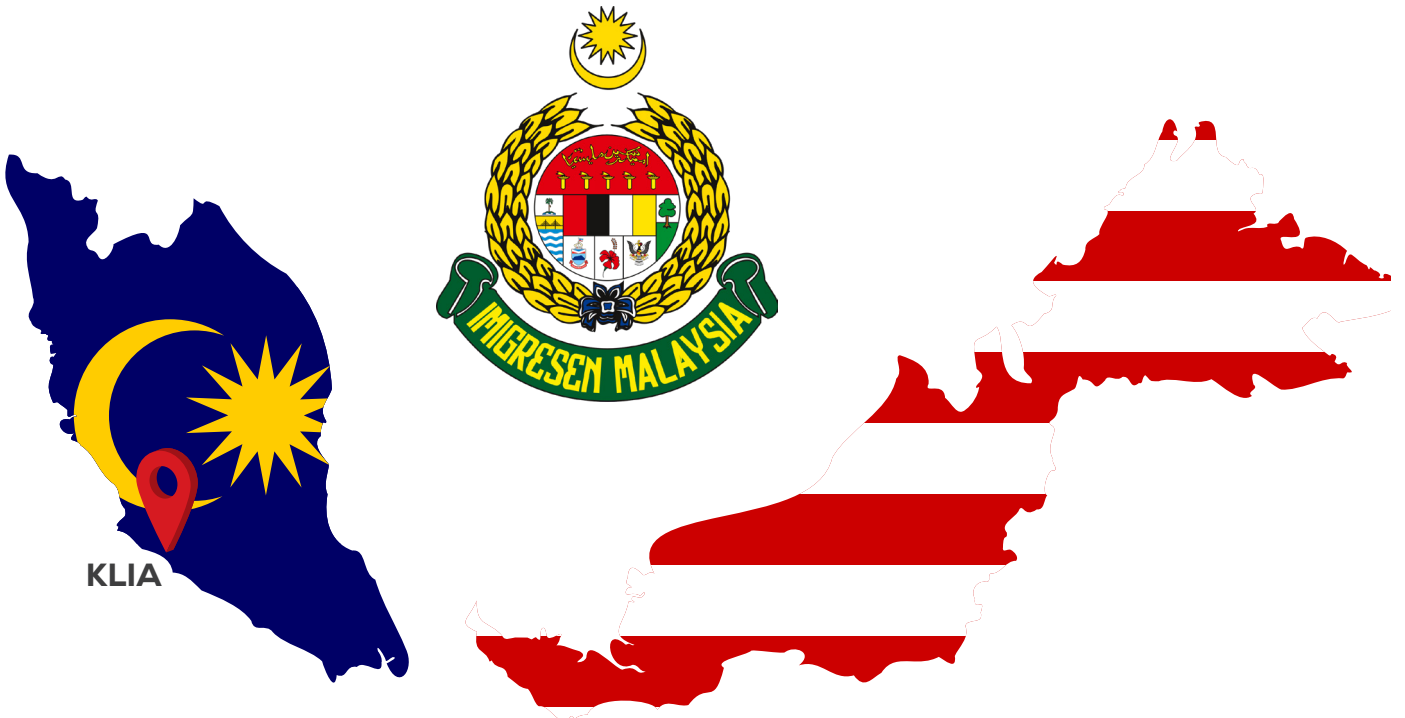

Opposite St. Francis Xavier's Church you will also find a large car park where you can park your car (secured) at the price of RM10. This is especially useful if you travel to Melaka by car. There are many trishaw drivers in the city, who will drive you through the town for only a few ringgit. This used to be a fun means of transportation, but in the last few years it has gotten a little out of hand. The drivers started to install large sound systems onto their trishaws and now they drive through the streets of Melaka making a lot of noise. I cannot imagine that this is what UNESCO had in mind when they decided to make it a World Heritage Site. A ride from Porta de Santiago to Jonker Street for example will cost you RM 10.

➤ history of Malacca

Historic sites in city center Melaka Melaka was founded around 1400 by a former prince from Sumatra (who ended up in Melaka during an escape attempt in that area). Melaka turned out to have a very good strategic position, and not long after the foundation the influx of merchant ships from India and China started. During that time Melaka grew into one of the major port in South-East Asia today. In 1511 the Portuguese traders first set foot on the Melakan soil. In 1641 the Portuguese gave up their power struggle (and war) with the Dutch and from that time onwards Melaka was under Dutch reign. Only a few years later, the English gained control over the area (after the Netherlands traded this region with the English for parts of Indonesia). The British rule lasted until 1957, when Malaysia was formed and Melaka continued as a semi autonomous province.
