The Director's Cut

By Jorge Hernandez - PHM Executive Director

Well, here we are and it's Summer again! Thanks to the Lord, we had an incredible Spring! We kicked it off with A Night For Israel at the end of March, and a Jewish Seder in April. Both events were blessed and well attended. PHM finished off the season with NightVision in June. We were able to minister to roughly 4,500 people each day which included salvations, baptisms and re-dedications! All glory to God!

I would like to thank everyone who makes PHM events possible. Thank you to our sponsors, our teams, volunteers, staff, prayer partners and our audiences. Most of all, I thank our Lord. To Him be the honor, glory and praise!

PHM Presents will continue to provide elite entertainment with two exciting events coming in July and August. On July 21st, Cowboy Up for Christ will bring former Bronco standout, Karl Mecklenburg, as our featured speaker. He will deliver God's Word that will bless the Western Slope! Also featured at this event will be Grammy nominated artist, Rhett Walker, and Grace Montrose Collective. Grace has performed for PHM several times and we are blessed to have them join us again. True Grit Cafe will be catering the event's free dinner. In August, PHM Presents will be hosting a concert at Grace Community Church, located in Montrose, featuring Big Daddy Weave's "Let it Begin Tour" with special guest Jordan St. Cyr. We are excited to put on these events for the community. God is so good! We pray PHM blesses everyone as we continue to spread the love of Jesus to the Western Slope!
