Autumn 2020

A Word from the Board

By Michael Reagor, PHM Board Chairman

Praise Him Ministries' mission is to spread the Gospel of Jesus through events, a youth center, Praise Productions bookstore, and support of Israel. When the pandemic began, we trusted that God would continue to use PHM in these ministries through the resources provided by our supporters. It was soon obvious that our new reality would be a long-term challenge, requiring us to humbly and persistently seek God's will in prayer, including how to respond to government restrictions that prevent us from operating as we have for nearly 20 years.

Because we could not gather in Colorado but believed God wanted us to bless others, we successfully recorded and then livestreamed Nightvision 2020 from Nashville, with a limited and social-distanced audience. Some criticized PHM for taking risks. However, we were persuaded that God wanted us to continue to produce events to spur others toward love and good deeds (Heb. 10:24-25). While we had the right to produce Nightvision 2020, we did so in a constructive way, seeking the good of others (1 Cor. 10:23-24).

Each ministry must decide for itself how to apply Jesus' teaching to the unique circumstances it faces. In our planning now and for the future, we find direction and sustenance in Scripture. Jesus said the greatest commandment is love of God, and the second, like it, love of neighbor (Mark 12:29-31). We must obey God in all things (Acts 5:29). Therefore, PHM has respected the authorities (Roms. 13:1-2) and followed reasonable guidelines. We will evaluate all rules and follow them, to love and protect our neighbors, unless such rules would violate a clear Biblical mandate or protected religious liberty. We will also be adaptable to our circumstances, like all Christians throughout history, even as we look forward to the day when we can gather together without masks and social distancing.

Like our faithful brothers, we say that Christ, not Caesar, is head of the Church. PHM will not cede Christ's authority to any civil authority which illegitimately imposes its authority. But we will love and respect others as we go forward. Whatever may come, PHM will bend its knee only to Christ. Please pray and stand with us in that conviction.

The Director's Cut by Jorge Hernandez, PHM Executive Director

In John 14:1 Jesus tells His apostles "Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me." Jesus knew His time had come. He wanted the disciples to know He would be with them always. The times we live in are certainly full of problems, worry, confusion and chaos.

As we go through the last part of 2020, let our hearts not be troubled. The division of people and political agendas, the violence from riots and racial issues, the confusion of COVID-19 pandemic, and the election of 2020 is definitely a great burden for anyone! But let us rest assured that Jesus is our only answer. Let our hearts rejoice and celebrate Him whom from all things come. Praise Him in all circumstances and let it be known, only Jesus saves and to Him be all the glory.
