I hold an Associate of Arts degree in Psychology from San Antonio College, a Bachelor of Arts degree in Criminal Justice with a minor in Sociology, a Master of Business Administration from the University of Texas, and a Master of Arts degree in Clinical Mental Health Counseling from Adams State University.

I am trained in evidence-based therapies and interventions, including Person-Centered Therapy, Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT), Dialectical Behavior Therapy (DBT), Internal Family Systems (IFS), Family Systems Theory (FST), Attachment-Based Therapy, Certified in Reintegration Therapy through the Clinical Certification Association of Licensed Professional and American Association of Forensic Professionals (AAFP), Experiential Therapy, Motivational Interviewing (MI), and Trauma Therapy. I also have expertise in chemical dependency and have over 20 years of experience as a Special Education Advocate.

I specialize in reintegration and court-ordered family therapy, with a focus on enhancing the parent-child relationship. In my role as a reunification and court-ordered family therapist, the child is my primary client. My professional practice is informed by clinical sessions, professional interviews, collateral interviews, a review of relevant documentation, and, most importantly, the safety of the child or children involved. I utilize an evidence-based theoretical approach to reunification therapy, drawing from Attachment Theory and Family Systems Theory.

I have been appointed through the Colorado Judicial Branch, including the State Court Administrator's Office, to serve as both a Child & Family Investigator (CFI) and a Parenting Responsibility Evaluator (PRE) in complex family law matters. In these roles, I provide neutral, court-appointed forensic services designed to assist the Court in determining parenting time and allocation of decision-making responsibilities in accordance with the best interests of the child.

As a therapist, I collaborate with my clients to pinpoint the areas in their lives where they feel stuck. Through a nonjudgmental approach, I guide them in discovering their inner strength and overcoming obstacles that hinder them from living a vibrant life. Therapy is a journey of growth and self-discovery, and I affirm that your identities and experiences are significant to me.
