The Tomoe Warrior Test gives every student, no matter what rank, an opportunity to demonstrate their kata for Grandmaster Piddington. It is an honor to perform kata for the originator of the very kata you are performing. To grasp the concept of a true Tomoe Warrior Spirit, please review Tomoe Warrior Requirements in the American Open Karate System Manual or visit SideKickDojo.com and click on Events and Tomoe Warrior for an updated list of requirements.

American Karate Academies National Association (AKANA) was founded by Grandmaster Piddington. AKANA is the organization that endorses this event and acknowledges rank for our system of study. Please wear your AKANA patch proudly for Grandmaster Piddington during this elite AKANA Tomoe Warrior Test.

Kata Art Forms of the American Open Karate System:

Please mark the kata that you are performing. If you are not sure which kata to mark, consult with an instructor.

Rules:

- Please read Tomoe Warrior Page on SideKickDojo.com for a complete list of requirements for the Tomoe Warrior Test.
- If you are performing Seventeen Kata Tomoe, Left & Right Pivot Form count as one kata and all three Naihanchi Kata are performed as O'Naihanchi which also counts as one kata.
- Three minor mistakes equal one major mistake. Minor mistakes include things such as a weak stance (bouncing), incorrect foot alignment, improper body alignment, incorrect hand or foot form, weak (hikite) chamber, loss of directing the gaze (focus), lack of power, lack of body timing (kime), improper breathing, improper rhythm, too slow, too fast, etc.
- Major mistakes include things such as a wrong movement, a long hesitation, forgetting to Kiai, not naming your kata before and after, not completing a salutation before and after, getting upset, etc.
- Look sharp, be prepared, have confidence, believe in yourself, if you make a mistake - do not focus on it, forget it and move forward (Kaizen).
