

MONROVIA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

2019 Membership Application

The Monrovia Historical Society is revitalized & growing!

The 1886 Anderson House Museum is one of the first ten houses built in Monrovia -- a gift to our city, now furnished down the smallest detail, as a way to experience family life in the 1880's.

The Legacy Project is preserving our City Historians' collections of over 5000 historic photographs and papers from Monrovia's early years and preparing them to be share online.

Your membership will help us preserve each of these treasures so all can enjoy them.

Member Benefits: You will receive reduced fees for events and products (photos, books, videos), a quarterly newsletter with highlights from the collection, priority notice and access to events, and the satisfaction of supporting the work.

Please join or renew your membership with a check payable to The Monrovia Historical Society, to:
