

DC2 - DEFENSIVE CARBINE 2 -

This course focuses on the science of precision shooting, firearm manipulation and body positioning, as well as moving and shooting techniques for the purposes of effectively defending yourself when employing a carbine

Duration:

Range Time: 4 hours

Prerequisite:

Proficiency in all aspects of firearms safety, muzzle awareness and muzzle discipline. The ability to perform the skills described in our DC1 course curriculum, while timed, and under range induced stress

Overview:

- Trigger finger placement, control and timing
- Firing from concealment and cover
- Firing from positions
- Transitions from carbine to handgun
- Manipulating and running the gun on the move
- Multiple target engagement scenarios

Student Required Gear:

- Closed toe shoes / long pants with belt loops / sturdy belt / hat
- Carbine with sling, fitted with iron sights, red dot optic or both
- Eye and ear pro
- Handgun
- Holster
- Handgun magazine carrier
- 150 rounds of ammunition for your carbine
- 50 rounds of ammunition for your handgun
- 3 carbine magazines
- 3 handgun magazines
- Water and snacks

WWW.AIM-TRUE.COM