

DHV DEFENSIVE HANDGUN - VEHICLE

This course focuses on safely manipulating and employing a handgun while in and around a vehicle, for the purposes of effectively defending yourself in this close quarters, often difficult to navigate environment

Duration:

Range Time: 4 hours

NOTE: THIS IS A STRICTLY VETTED COURSE, RESERVED FOR HIGHLY DISCIPLINED, COMPETENT SHOOTERS.

Prerequisite:

Advanced level of proficiency with drawing and firing from the holster, as well as all aspects of firearms safety, muzzle awareness and muzzle discipline. The ability to perform the skills described in both our DH1 & DH2 course curriculum, while timed, and under range induced stress

Overview:

- Principals of round trajectory and penetration through different materials on a vehicle
- Principles of cover and concealment afforded by a vehicle
- Drawing and firing from the holster in and around a vehicle
- Handgun manipulation in and around a vehicle
- Firing from positions associated with defensive vehicle engagements
- Multiple target engagement work

Student Required Gear

- Closed toe shoes / long pants with belt loops / sturdy belt / hat
- Eye and ear pro
- Handgun
- Holster
- 3 magazines
- Magazine carrier
- Water and snacks
- 250 rounds of ammunition for your pistol