Political Conversion: My Awakening

A Narrative by Tiffany Benson

It's summer 2019. I had recently moved to Peoria, Arizona and something was stirring in me. I knew it was time...time I increased my capacity of caring about the issues plaguing America. But where to begin?

I decided, if I was going to get involved in politics, I would let the side I knew I disagreed with the most go first.

Plopping down at the dining room table, I braced myself for what I might hear over the next several hours. I opened the laptop, signed into a social media application and tuned in to my first Democratic debate.

For years, I avoided politics as I perceived it to be a demented shell game played by the rich and morally bankrupt (I was right). I was convinced that processing political jargon required a level of brain power I hadn't tapped into. So, I held to a personal standard of not complaining or expressing uneducated opinions (I still hold to this).

As I watched the opening monologue and testimonials, I studied the smiling faces of anchors and commentators. I knew nothing about their work in broadcasting and I was clueless to any ulterior motives of deception. I had no concept of fake news, just a general disposition to doubt everything I heard.

After a while, I skipped to the main event. The stage was full of maniacal characters who made grandiose speeches and idiotic pledges - it was a total freakshow.

I listened as intelligent fools described their plan for a better America - basically summed up in three words: Beat Donald Trump.

Rather than pass judgment, I kept listening. I didn't get far before I felt my blood pressure rising. I paused the video, my heart racing, I was ticked! Fuming, I said aloud, "Wait! You mean to tell me I'm supposed to vote for you because I'm black, I'm a woman, and I have student loan debt!? What kind of trash is that!? This is what Democrats have to say to their constituents!? And people actually vote for this stuff!?"

Of course, at this point, I was unfamiliar with the term "identity politics." I only knew I'd just experienced a psychological assault of epic proportions. Thus, I instantly acquired the brain power to process political jargon. As an untrained political observer, I thank God I was able to see the shady propaganda for what it is.

Despite the nonsense, I finished the debate (with lots of pausing and colorful commentary). In fact, by the end of the summer, I watched three Democratic debates. I was wrecked with anxiety as I dug deep into research on socialism and communism. I watched several reports and documentaries on the people of Venezuela, the Chinese Communist Party and other authoritarian regimes.

I also started watching Fox News to counterbalance all the leftist garbage. But after several months of right-wing commentaries from the Trump-train talking heads, I knew I had to get out of the mainstream. What Americans called "news" was nothing more than a steaming pile of shit. I was desperate for facts, evidence and practical knowledge. I eventually ditched the bozos at Fox (save a little Hannity and Tucker from time to time) and searched for non-partisan/independent, conservative journalism (a couple of my go-tos are Epoch Times, NTD News and Flashpoint, for a prophetic perspective).

Debates on college campuses and on the streets of America left me flabbergasted. Millennials (30-somethings) and Centennials (20-somethings) knew nothing of socialism or communism and they didn't care to combat their ignorance! Fewer in younger age brackets knew the truth about America's founding and its position as a leader of the free world. I couldn't believe how many people rejected statistics and factual information.

After hearing a "political sermon" in 2018, I recall standing in a voting booth for the first time. I didn't know what I was doing, Googling and scrambling to get to know candidates in 30 seconds or less. At least, I helped elect Sen. Josh Hawley before leaving Missouri. I finally did something besides pray. I embarked on a journey to do my part in saving America.

When I moved to Arizona, I felt I should register as nonpartisan, listen to both sides on the issues, and cast my vote for the candidates with policies that aligned closest to the Bible. For me, there's no separating God from politics. If Jesus cares about this people planet, then so do I.

I'm unashamed to say, I cast my first vote in a presidential race in 2020 and I have no regrets about my decision. Yes, I voted for Donald J. Trump.

Excitement to participate in my first presidential election led me to take off a few hours on the morning of Oct. 7, 2020.

As I stood in line outside the precinct, a local reporter approached me to ask a few questions. The conversation went something like this:

Reporter: Why did you decide to come in-person instead of voting by mail?

Me: It's my first time voting in a presidential election and I wanted to get the full experience.

Reporter: Do you not trust the U.S. postal service?

Me: Sure, I do. When I started a new job, they delivered my paychecks before direct deposit.

Reporter: What do you think about Trump replacing RBG?

Me: If he's broken no laws and it's for the good of the country, then I say he did the right thing by appointing ACB when he did.

<https://youtu.be/wrDYcS9qskE>

"A significant victory," Chris Wallace said. This is the night Fox News lost the trust of their Republican / conservative viewers.

Reporter: Do you think enough people will turn out to swing the election in Trump's direction?

Me: I don't know. God is in control. I'm just here to do my part.

Reporter: Do you believe what Trump is saying about the potential for massive fraud in the election?

Me: I think it's a matter of perception. If you believe there's no fraud, then you won't see fraud. If you believe there is fraud then you'll see it.

Reporter: (nodding) Who are you voting for today?

Me: Oh, I'm voting for Trump.

That's why the participants want the secret history of the 2020 election told, even though it sounds like a paranoid fever dream - a well-funded cabal of powerful people, ranging across industries and ideologies, working together behind the scenes to influence perceptions, change rules and laws, steer media coverage and control the flow of information. They were not rigging the election; they were fortifying it.

-Molly Ball, TIMES National Political Correspondent; p. 5

Here is my response to TIME Magazine's The Secret History of the Shadow Campaign That Saved the 2020 Election by Molly Ball. My analysis barely scratches the surface of probably the biggest political crime in American history. Read the article: <https://time.com/5936036/secret-2020-election-campaign/>

This piece can only be described as a braggadocios exposé of the political left's - and quite frankly, part of the right's - playbook for the 2020 election. The audacious 25 pages provides meticulous details leading up to and surrounding the event. You have to read it for yourself to believe the left would publish their blueprint for ousting Donald Trump.

Ball said, "To the President, something felt amiss. 'It was all very strange,' Trump said on Dec. 2. 'Within days after the election, we witnessed an orchestrated effort to anoint the winner, even while many key states were still being counted.' In a way, Trump was right. There was a conspiracy unfolding behind the scenes, one that both curtailed the protests and coordinated the resistance from CEOs. Both surprises were the result of an informal alliance between left-wing activists and business titans."

The narrative was stacked so well against Trump, there wasn't a strategy or a prayer to overcome this grand scheme. Of course, I believe in the power of prayer, but Christians and patriots have to admit we had no idea what level of wickedness Trump was dealing with. The swamp was deeper than imaginable. 5

I'll be bold and suggest: if Trump were in office it wouldn't be as good for America as some believe. God saved us by allowing Trump to be cheated out of office. Stay with me here. Think: four more years of mayhem and anarchy in every major city. Four more years of "Russian collusion" and impeachments. Four more years of greedy, two-faced RINOs comfortably hiding behind (and doing business with) radical Democrats.

Still with me? Consider Trump would be in the White House up against a Democrat majority in the House and Senate. He would be forced to sign executive orders in lieu of congressional sessions. Massive fraud would be buried beneath the narrative of Trump using the Executive Branch to set up a totalitarian system. Everyone on the left would be screaming for nasty Pelosi and upchuck Schumer to "do something [drastic] to preserve our democracy!"

And then, after those 4 years, this same shadow campaign would've been deployed to secure a permanent victory for Democrats. With unhindered power in all branches of government, there would be no audits, SCOTUS would be packed, every church would be in danger of extinction (Trump prophecies of a second term fulfilled), and the country is as good as dead heading toward a civil war. America would have been catapulted into a full-blown communist nation on Inauguration Day 2024.

It is absolutely gut wrenching to watch frauds ruin our nation. But the shadow campaign was like a gift to naive Christians and conservatives who put their faith in one man, in the Republican Party and in our economy. Now is the time to do 2 Chronicles 7:14. God is extending undeserved mercy to a society that murders the unborn, practices paganism and idolatry, and indulges in sex and violence. America deserves death. Yet, He is granting an opportunity to repent and be restored. Our faith and hope should be in Jesus Christ alone.

Containers of ballots produced after observers are sent home.
(Fulton County, GA)

Ball again, "The scenario the shadow campaigners were desperate to stop was not a Trump victory. It was an election so calamitous that no result could be discerned at all, a failure of the central act of democratic self-governance that has been a hallmark of America since its founding. Their work touched every aspect of the election. They got states to change voting systems and laws and helped secure hundreds of millions of public and private funding."

On the evening of Nov. 3, Trump led in many counties and battleground territories. He was about exceed the 270 electoral college votes required to win the presidency. Patrons were still in line waiting for their private moment in a booth. It was a sure victory. Suddenly, a simultaneous stop in counting (reported as a "pause") happened in key states.

Fox News made CNN look like child's play when it called Arizona for Biden, creating a domino affect and leading the charge of false narratives. While the election was in limbo, Biden was unanimously addressed as "President-elect" by mainstream media. Even the right's newfound darling, Newsmax, fell prey to corporate talking points. They curbed narratives to avoid lawsuits and censored patriots like Mike Lindell. Biden's victory was packaged in bipartisan talking points - so, you could watch your favorite anchor tell the story.

It's hard to locate that footage of suitcases and boxes of ballots being delivered in the middle of the night. Gone are the stories of Republican and nonpartisan poll watches bullied and forced out of counting rooms. Besides Lindell and other data geeks, there are no mainstream reports on the spiked charts that reveal mathematically impossible election results.

When Ball said, "a failure of the central act of democratic self-governance", she meant, "Look what you made us do!" The left's campaign against Trump wasn't enough to stop the majority of Americans from voting for him. We still believed in Trump. We loved that he was a failed politician, who kept promises, told the truth and refused to take bribes. His policies enriched many and restored constitutional authorities back to We The People. The left had no choice but cheat because...democracy.

Ball continued, "The chief difference between the U.S. and countries who lost their grip on democracy, was that America's decentralized election system couldn't be rigged in one fell swoop. That presented an opportunity to shore it up."

Democrats and Republicans are equally responsible for the current state of our nation. One party stole America for power, control and dreams of Lady Liberty bowing to globalism. The other party saw a payday delayed four years, with more foreign deals going down the drain. Trump was not intimidated by the left, and he was too rogue for the establishment right. They all wanted him gone.

It's time for Americans to stop fighting each other and unify to push back against a tyrannical federal government. There is no longer a "lesser of two evils." There's just evil...God help us.

INFILTRATED BY SPECIAL FORCES

What do you think?

Did President Trump lead a failed revolution of white supremacists and Christian nationalists on the morning of Jan. 6? Were gun-less Trump supporters able to storm the Capitol and cause more mayhem, death and destruction than an entire summer of race riots? Should a 9/11-style commission be assembled to unveil and publicly shame far-right insurrectionists?

- OR -

Was all this set up by Trump and special ops? Now that evidence is in hand, via Pelosi's laptop, will tribunals start soon? Are the Obamas and Clintons first in line for execution? Are more treasonous suspects awaiting trial at Guantanamo Bay? While Biden's WH appearances are done via greenscreen technology, is Trump spearheading a shadow government? Will a military coup help him take back the presidency any day now?

Things that make you go, "Hmm..."

I love and would not intentionally offend anyone who believes either of these theories. However, both narratives, prophecies or whatever, are not what's truly taking place in America. Something nefarious and vile has crept into our nation, rearing its ugly head in more than one generation.

Oh, the attack on the Capitol was planned to be sure, but the "special forces" among the crowds were not sent by Trump or Q or whoever. The violent ones were working on behalf of a satanic political system called communism. What we saw were well-organized, well-trained, radicalized communist agitators. Not as exciting of a theory, but more of a threat than any other.

The "insurrection" was the final blow to Trump's campaign. The scheme would also enable leftist politicians to forever brand Republican, conservative and Christian voters as traitors of democracy. If leftist mainstream media is your source of news, then you're glad Trump is gone. He was tearing the country apart, selling us out to foreign nations, abusing power and threatening to use martial law to remain in office.

Aren't you tired of false narratives?

Agitation is a method that "generally focuses on one event, and one contradiction, [seeking] to make a single idea powerfully clear to broad numbers of people," according to Marxist.org. Agitation pairs well with propaganda (media), but is more effective in execution.

On Jan. 6, under the guise of peaceful protestors, these agitators mixed in with crowds of Trump supporters. They wore MAGA hats and they waved their own American flags and Trump flags. They vandalized the Capitol and stalled the electoral college debate session.

"Only timely, revolutionary agitation can clear the smoke and point the finger at its source..." Marxist.org.

The city mayor enforced a curfew, legitimate protesters had to leave D.C. immediately or risk spending a night in jail. Congress resumed without further incident, objections based on fraud evidence were muted and senators who planned to object to certification flaked in false humility. And Pence? That's another story. On the morning of Jan. 7, We The People found out that Biden was the 46th President of the United States.

Agitators had successfully completed their mission. All fingers of insurrection pointed to Trump and his supporters.

One BLM activist was identified and charged with storming the Capitol. I say this young, dumb punk was a "scapegoat" put forward to satisfy any probes into a premeditated attack from the left. Marxist training is coordinated, agitators don't work alone.

This infiltration deceived even the most diehard Trump supporters. Some conservative commentators were so spooked they actually blamed supporters for defaming the right's peaceful movement. Leftist talking points dominated right-wing airways for days.

These Trump supporters are hardly insurrectionists. They likely followed agitators inside to look around. Anyone curious enough would have done the same thing.

Trump's social media accounts were cancelled, whistleblowers were censored and recorded footage contradicting mainstream narratives was scrubbed from public forums. But inquiring minds still want to know: Why wasn't the national guard deployed? Why was law enforcement so shorthanded that day? Were Capitol police really removing barricades and waving people inside? What about the analysis that marked the breach sometime before noon while Trump's speech didn't wrap up until after one pm? Isn't D.C. under 24-hour surveillance? Where is the security footage? Yes, Pelosi, we need a commission to investigate all that!

Of course, not only trained Marxists breached the Capitol. Pesky, tax paying patriots declared it to be The People's House as they walked through - allowed by security and against their own better judgment. Aside from agitators and foolish vandals, nothing was burned or looted and no congressmen were harmed. Despite insane narratives, only one wrongful death occurred. Sadly, the murder of unarmed veteran, Ashli BAbbot, will never be properly investigated. And several right-wing activists are still being held without trial.

Elected officials have taxed us to broke and sold us out to foreign nations. They are partnering with communist regimes to destroy our free society. They encourage the serial raping and molestation of children via open borders and sex education. They legislate violence and defund police forces. And now, with the help of radical, brainwashed reprobates, they've stolen our country.

POLITICAL PANDEMIC

LAB LEAK, LOCKDOWNS & COVER-UPS

It wasn't the virus that broken down the American people's psyche - it was fear. The fear of sickness and the fear of death caused many to isolate themselves. This same fear, along with an onset of severe psychosis, is enabling the government to permanently mask the nation and forcefully inject experimental junk into bodies - This is communist healthcare.

COVID-19

The lab leak theory is supported by the Wuhan Institute of Virology's proximity to ground zero and its level-4 lab research into bat coronaviruses. These facts were censored in 2020 but are currently making rounds in the mainstream. A blackout of honest information and a loss of journalistic integrity have left America handicapped in its efforts to manage a medical crisis - a crisis we now know was manufactured in communist China.

THE MEDICAL COMMUNITY HAS PERMANENTLY LOST CREDIBILITY AND RESPECT FROM WORLD POPULATIONS.

THE CDC, WHO AND NIH ARE NO LONGER WORTHY OF OUR TRUST AS INDIVIDUALS, COMMUNITIES AND NATIONS.

COVID-19 IS A BIOLOGICAL WEAPON - MANIPULATED AND INTELLIGENTLY ENGINEERED TO INVADE HUMAN CELLS AND CAUSE MULTISYSTEM FAILURE. VACCINATION INCREASES ITS ABILITY TO ADAPT AND GENERATE VARIANTS.

THIS VIRUS WAS FUNDED, IN PART, BY DR. ANTHONY FAUCI - THE PRIMARY WHITE HOUSE MEDICAL STAFF ADVISOR.

After a year and a half of lockdowns, mask mandates, a stalled economy, isolation and death, the American government has failed to provide the public with well-deserved answers. The Biden Administration's investigation into the origins of Covid-19 concluded after the Chinese Communist Party blocked a forensic probe into Wuhan Laboratories.

Read the unclassified statement: <https://www.courthousenews.com/wp-content/uploads/2021/08/covid-origin-report.pdf>.

Instead of a full report showing what steps and measures were taken, we've been provided less than two pages of willfully ignorant hypotheses, part of which says, "We judge the virus was not developed as a biological weapon. Most agencies also assess with confidence that [Covid-19] probably was not genetically engineered."

According to Courthousenews.com, "While the U.S. intelligence community continues to back the idea that the initial Covid-19 exposure happened either through contact with an infected animal or via a laboratory accident, it could not say with certainty which incident was more plausible."

The joke is on them if they really think sensible, Constitutional Americans will indefinitely live in lockdown or comply with mask mandates. Anyone with knowledge of the truth will fight against the enforcement of experimental vaccines. No one in their right mind is still listening to the advice of Dr. Anthony Fauci. Those with common sense will not continue to distance themselves from friends and loved ones. Only brainwashed sheep consider unvaccinated people a bodily threat.

Yet, if the federal government can get all 50 states to comply and associate vaccination and masks with good behavior, Americans would (unknowingly) agree to other Covid-19 "safety" legislation. Each new bill would erode constitutional freedoms, ostracize nonconformists, eliminate religious rights and give politicians more control over daily life. Thus far, the boiling frog metaphor appears to be working on many citizens.

Since those in power refuse to let any serious scientific or personal health discussions take place in the public sphere, Americans are left with two choices: comply with the communist takeover or prepare for civil war.

Something wicked this way comes and many Americans have no clue. The times we're living in require a serious level of spiritual discernment. Otherwise, you will not see through the lies cleverly disguised as social justice, equity, equality and safety guidelines.

This is the propaganda of the new world order. Call it a conspiracy if you'd like, but I don't believe there are any conspiracies or coincidences about the fall of western civilizations.

Watch Yuri Bezmenov explain the four stages of ideological subversion. Listen closely to Bezmenov's history at the beginning of the video as his experiences lend to his credibility. This breakdown can help Americans understand how communism is achieved through unrestricted psychological warfare.

<https://youtu.be/0fx1BYwCwCl>

Bezmenov describes the purpose of ideological subversion as a slow process of active measures to change the perception of reality of every American to such an extent that, despite their abundance of information, no one is able to come to sensible conclusions in the interests of defending themselves, their families their communities, or their country. It's a great brainwashing process.

Bezmenov's 4 stages of ideological subversion:

Stage 1: Demoralization. Takes about 15-20 years to demoralize a nation. This is the minimum number of years required to educate one generation of students and expose them to the ideology of the enemy. Facts no longer matter. Bezmenov said (in 1984!) this stage was already complete, even over-fulfilled in America.

Stage 2: Destabilization. Takes about 2-5 years to destabilize a nation. Economy, defense systems and foreign relations are ruined amid a surge of socialist communist legislation. All of these things are currently manifesting in the United States and in other westernized cultures.

Stage 3: Crisis. Takes only 6 weeks to bring a nation to the verge of crisis. A violent change of power, structure and economy will occur in this state. Note: the death of George Floyd and the spread of Covid-19 were two major crises used to introduction police reform and mandatory health clearances. This is communism with American characteristics.

Stage 4: Normalization. This stage lasts indefinitely (think of China, Cuba, Russia, Venezuela...). After all the promises of paradise on earth have been made and people have surrendered their rights, communism takes full effect. The government is the landlord of all properties and the controller of all resources, healthcare, education, business industries and markets. Citizens are forced to become serfs on their own land.

Ideological subversion is fully deployed in America - and it's working. This is evidenced by society's general acceptance and a lack of outrage over media propaganda, intrusive government legislation, domestic terrorism (Antifa, Black Lives Matter), agitation (as we saw on Jan. 6, 2020) and a stolen election. Thus, judging by these 4 stages, one could say America is well on its way to becoming a communist nation.

If you believe we should be forced to cover our faces and take lethal vaccine injections; if you believe BLM exists to advocate for the rights of black people; if you believe the 2020 election was secure and lawful; if you trust the government and see no need to personally research these things - you are the product of an ideological subversion campaign. Sadly, you are brainwashed - but there's hope if you're willing to relearn American history and recall how this nation has blessed and prospered you.

What we all need is a divine interruption. Yet, the sovereignty of God is for us to partner with Him. We can't do God's part (salvation, miracles) and He will not do ours (obedience, submission). Unless the Body of Christ rises up in its authority on a national scale, America will be lost.

The Church needs to repent on behalf of this nation. Pastors and spiritual leaders need to loudly and boldly proclaim truth; speak out against the immorality and rebellion in the culture. Every Christian must cease loving their earthly life and willingly lay it down for the sake of the gospel.

I will leave you with wise words from a prophetic teacher, speaking to a politically apathetic Christian community:

--Before there can be revival in the Church, there needs to be an awakening of the harvest, which will only come through reformation in the culture. You can't have revival without reformation.

Why would God send hurting, dying people to those who are disinterested in their issues? The Church knows the gospel is the answer, but Jesus is not relevant to them. We need to be able to demonstrate, to some degree, that we care about government, financial markets, social issues, education, etc.

Jesus and the apostles did not sit in the synagogue, praying and waiting for gentiles to wander in. They engaged the culture. The Great Commission is not to "stay and pray" but to "go and disciple" nations, to influence every corner of our world for the Kingdom of God. --
